INDUBITABLE EVIDENCE OF SKILL.—New testimonials appear every day in these columns, certifying to the performance of radical cures by Dr. E. S. ABORN, of 134 Smithfield street, whose peculiar treatment seems to be unknown to the general practitioner. Not only persons occupying the highest position in society, but prominent physicians and their families, place themselves, and are now under his skillful treatment, which is convincing proof of the superiority of his mode of treatment, or else of his remarkable judgment in applying the proper remedy in the proper place. Education alone will not make a physician or surgeon. There must be a fitness for the profession, and Dr. Aborn seems to possess all the qualifications to make him famous, as he has proved himself skillful in the science of curing. Since his recent advent here, patients come to him from all parts of the country and from other States, and his benefactions are seen in the innumerable testimonials he has given to the public.

The Daily Commercial

Magazines.

Harper, Godey and the other magazines for November, have been received by Gildenfenny.

THE New York Herald, referring to the notice the press has taken of the fact that the names of the Bennetts have been withdrawn from the place where they have so long and conspicuously stood, says:

Our contemporaries of the West and the East, in their solitude about James Gordon Bennett, remind us of a little anecdote. Once upon a time the famous Alcibiades, finding that the Athenians had nothing for their street corner gossip but himself, took a splendid dog, known by everybody, and, cutting off his tail, sent him yelping through the city. When asked why he did this the facetious Greek replied that it was to give the Athenians something new to talk about.

THE Sunday edition of the Philadelphia Press was suspended with the issue of the 20th. Mr. Forney says his object in commencing a Sunday edition (whatever that was) has been achieved, and, notwithstanding its success, he has determined to suspend it, for the reasons that the editor must be necessarily absent at Washington, that subscribers complain they do not receive a portion of the news on Mondays, and that large additional labor is imposed upon the gentlemen who assist the editor in the preparation of the matter for the paper.

THE Herald says "Mrs. Lincoln has threatened to retaliate upon her assailants, by the publication of certain letters damaging to their self-love. She has been most grossly and unjustly assailed, and has certainly the right to defend herself. Such a 'carrying the war into Africa' would raise some stirr in the Republican party."

It is to be hoped Mrs. Lincoln will be deterred from nothing she can do. Having ruined herself, there might be some compensation in killing off half a score of leeches who hung upon Mr. Lincoln for offices and contracts.

Operations of the Treasury.

The following are the operations of the Treasury Department during the past week:

Fractional currency issued for the week..$	503,000
Fractional currency shipped to the Assistant Treasurer at New York	100,000
Fractional currency shipped to the United States Depository, Louisville	20,000
Fractional currency shipped to national banks	303,757
Total amount of currency shipped	423,757
Fractional currency redeemed and destroyed	503,800
Securities held for circulating notes	340,656,250
Securities held for deposits of public moneys	38,270,450
Total amount of securities held	$378,916,700
National bank notes issued for the week	34,080
Total amount national bank notes issued	304,120,990
National bank notes returned	4,988,255
Actual circulation at this date	299,141,746

The Philadelphia Contested Elections.

The Press says: Considerable discussion has been had on the subject as to who will hold possession of the offices of City Commissioner, Clerk of Orphan's Court, and Register of Wills, while the contest now in court is pending. The present occupants were commissioned for three years, or until their successors be duly qualified. The law also requires notice of a contest to be given the Governor of the Commonwealth, who is required to withhold the issuing of commissions until the Court decides who is entitled to the office. Such notice has been given the Governor, and the present officials will hold the offices in question until the Court determines to whom commissions shall issue.

AN ICE CAVE.—Nearly all the ice used on the Pacific coast is obtained from a never-failing ice cave in the Northern part of Oregon. This remarkable subterranean cavern, where the ice remains in a perfect state the year round, is situated on a stream known as the White Salmon, which empties into the Columbia river, on the Washington Territory side, about thirty miles below the Dalles. The entrance to this icy chamber is near the base of Mount Adams, which stands twenty miles from the Columbia, and whose melting snow constitutes the waters of the White Salmon. The dimensions of this cave are vast, extending many miles under the snowy mountain, and the scenery inside is supremely grand. The ice is found in columns formed by water falling from above and congealing as it falls. These columns are cut out in blocks and conveyed on pack animals to the Columbia river, and from thence are shipped to all the markets on the coast.

The holders of Mexican stocks and bonds are at present signing, in various parts of France, another petition to the Emperor. The petitioners supplicate his Majesty to order a bill to be prepared by which the Legislature may accord an equitable indemnity to the holders, and further request that it may be one of the first measures brought in next session.

LATE NEWS.

Major General Pleasanton has tendered his resignation, which has been accepted, to take effect on the 1st of January next.

Commissioner Rollins, who has recently returned to Washington from New York, reports that seizures of illegal distilleries are very numerous there. In view of so many frauds, he has decided to compel distillers in New York to annex the "tice" meter, adopted by the Department some time since, and instructions will also be sent West immediately to require all distillers there also to comply with the regulations of the Department and annex this meter.

Marshal Goodloe, of North Carolina, now in Washington, reports political affairs in that State as in bad condition and very much mixed up, there being strong enmity existing between the two wings of the Republican party—radicals and conservatives—and that the object for which the State Convention assembled will probably be defeated from this cause.

Gen. Pile, member of Congress from St. Louis, is in Washington looking after Revenue matters pertaining to his District. It is understood from authentic sources that changes will be made there shortly in certain offices. If the statements made to the Revenue Bureau are true, undoubtedly "things are rotten in Denmark" in the vicinity of St. Louis.

In Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, on Sunday, Rev. Henry Ward Beecher presented to the congregation an appeal to assist a Union lady in Charleston, South Carolina, who proposes to remove the three hundred and eleven dead Union soldiers now lying in the potters field there, to Magnolia Cemetery, and erect a monument over them. A collection of fifteen hundred dollars was made.

A terrific gale occurred on the Labrador Coast on the 9th instant, and so far as heard from some thirty vessels have been totally wrecked. Also, an immense amount of property and forty lives lost. Wharves, boats and fish oil on shore were washed away. Steamers are leaving Saint Johns with relief for the sufferers, there being over one thousand people left destitute.

YOUGSTOWN, OHIO.

Burglary---Miners' Riot---Miner Killed by Foul Air.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., October 21, 1867.

The residence of W. J. Hitchcock was entered by burglars, Saturday night, and a quantity of clothing stolen. The thieves made good their escape.

Ten Scotch women at Power's Mines, two miles below this city, were arrested yesterday and brought before Mayor McGee, for instigating a riot. One of the miners had refused to join the Miners' Union, and himself and family were attacked by women and their lives threatened.

At Girard, on Friday last, a miner, on entering an abandoned mine, encountered foul air, which killed him instantly.

THE CAPITAL.

The Postmaster General on the Situation.

He Secures his Retention in the Cabinet.

General Grant's Progress in Retrenchment.

The Retrenchment Committee in the Treasury Department.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 21, 1867.

Postmaster General Randall's Views.

The Intelligencer will to-morrow publish a letter from Postmaster General Randall on the political situation. It is addressed to a citizen of Wisconsin, and opens by denouncing the Republican party of that State for advocating in their State Convention the impeachment of President Johnson. He says the latter has done nothing to be impeached for, and maintains that if Congress had not interfered with him, the policy of the administration could have resulted, long since, in the representation, by loyal men, of every State in the South. He closes by trusting that Wisconsin will join New York, in following Ohio and Pennsylvania. The letter places Mr. Randall squarely in sympathy with the President, and disposes of the charges that his position, in this regard, was equivocal. It will doubtless ensure his retention.

Gen. Grant's Retrenchment.

General Grant has issued another order looking to retrenchment. He directs that all private buildings occupied in this city by any bureau of the War Department be vacated at once, and turned over to their owners. This will effect a saving of many thousand dollars per month. Since General Grant took hold of the War Department the retrenchment in expenses has been at the rate of five millions per annum.

The Treasury Investigation.

The Congressional Retrenchment Committee resumed its labors to-day in the Treasury. The chief of the Printing Division has, in compliance with the request of the committee, furnished them with a full statement of the amount of work done by the Printing Division, the amount of money printed and the cost thereof, an inventory of all the machinery used in the Division, together with all information relating to the expenses of printing the national currency.

Resignation Accepted.

The resignation of General Kilpatrick as Captain in the regular army has been accepted, to date the 15th instant, and also that of Gen. Pleasanton as Major, to take effect on the first of next January, till which time he has leave of absence.

Put on Retired List.

By direction of the President, Paymaster Simeon Francis is retired from the services, and his name will be entered on the retired list of officers of the grade to which he belongs, and will be assigned to such duty as the Paymaster General shall designate.

White House.

Among the visitors to the White House to-day were Postmaster General Randall, Attorney General Stanbery, Assistant Attorney General Binckley and ex-Congressman Hubbell.

Denial from Secretary McCulloch.

Secretary McCulloch being interrogated to-day, as to the statement of the Boston Post correspondent, that his (McCulloch's) resignation was no longer at the President's disposal, and that if his removal was attempted he would avail himself of the tenure of office law, and resist, authorized a positive denial of the truth of the paragraph in all its parts. His resignation is and has been at all times subject to the acceptance of the President.

Intercession for Fenians.

Renewed application is being made to the Government to press the British Government to a decision in the case of those Americans (Fenians) whom she now holds in durance. This application is made under supposition that the administration has failed to act in the matter. From a proper official source it is denied that the President recently referred the matter to the Secretary of State, who promptly communicated with our Minister to England, instructing the latter to lay the subject before the British Government to ask for a speedy hearing and discharge of the prisoners against whom proof of violation of law could not be made. To this communication no reply has yet been received.

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 21, 1867.

THE WAR OFFICE.

A Washington special to the New York Express, says: Mr. Ewing, of Ohio, a brother-in-law of General Sherman, still has the best show for the War Department, and will probably receive the appointment, with Gen. Sherman as an adviser in the President's interest.

CALIFORNIA LAND CLAIMS SETTLED.

The Secretary of the Treasury has approved the decision of the General Land Office in relation to the Mexican grant in California, called Sabrante De San Jacinto, confirmed to Marta Alle Sasario De Aquirre, wife of Jose Antonio Aquirre. The grant contains 48,847 acres, situated in San Bernardino county, about eighteen miles from San Antonio. The survey was resisted by adverse claimants, but now being sustained, the Sabrante claimants are applying for an early issue of contents.

THE FENIANS.

The Fenian General O'Neil has been engaged during the past week in perfecting the Fenian organization of this city. At a meeting here to-day, he said he expected to recruit a regiment in the District of Columbia. The Fenian General Organization has arms, uniforms, ammunition and all kinds of war material already on had.

CONSCIENCE MONEY.

The Treasury Department to-day received a letter from Brooklyn, containing a check on the Long Island Bank for $767.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The New York Post's Washington special says the Judiciary Committee is progressing slowly with the Maryland investigation, owing to the difficulty in obtaining witnesses.

Gen. Pile, member of Congress from St. Louis District, is here, looking after revenue matters in his district. There will be a change among the officers there very soon.

The Revenue Bureau will this week require all distilleries to annex the Tice meter.

Information from a Republican source in Virginia is to the effect that in the election to-morrow the party in favor of a Convention will probably be defeated. Advices from North Carolina say it seems probable the object for which the Convention met will be defeated by the contentions of the different factions. The mass of the people take very little interest in existing strifes, and are devoting themselves to the cultivation of crops.

THE OLD SCHOOL SYNOD.

The Baltimore Synod of the Old School Presbyterian Church, at its meeting to-day in Georgetown, passed a resolution directing the attention of the Union Committee to the resolutions of various Presbyteries, in the hope that they may lead to the union of the Old and New Schools, not merely in form but in feeling, and make the reunited church indeed one body in doctrine, spirit, truth and love.

GEN. SKINNER.

First Assistant Postmaster General, is not yet considered out of danger, although much improved.

PATENTS.

Two hundred and forty-one patents have been issued from the Patent Office for the week ending the 29th.

THE PRINTING BUREAU.

A full statement of the works done by the printing division of the Treasury Department has been furnished the Retrenchment Committee by Superintendent Clark.

MONONGAHELA CITY.

Burning of a Steam Saw Mill---Loss $5,000, no Insurance.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

MONONGAHELA CITY, October 21, 1867.

R. Leezer & Co.'s steam saw mill was burned down this evening. Loss five thousand dollars. No insurance. W.

Extensive Robbery in St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, October 21.—One of the most extensive robberies ever committed here occurred last night. The wholesale jewelry store of Meier & Lopez, No. 14 North Main street, was entered, the safe opened, and from ten to fifteen thousand dollars worth of jewelry, consisting of watches, both gold and silver, diamond rings and a large lot of gold and silver chains. There is no clue to the robbers yet.

THE CANTON TRAGEDY.

Death of Mrs. Caroline Hoffman.

Suicide of the Husband and Murderer.

He Hangs Himself in His Cell.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

CANTON, O., October 21, 1867.

Mrs. Caroline Yost, nee Hoffman, the woman who was stabbed in church last Sunday by her divorced husband, died Saturday last. Hoffman, the murderer, hung himself in his cell last night. He had tried yesterday to kill himself by bumping his head against a wall and his feet had been chained as a precautionary measure, but he managed to burn a hole in a board partition with the stove poker, and tearing the sheets of his cot into strips, twisted them into a rope, which he passed through the hole around the side of the partition and around his neck. The body was standing square on the floor when found this morning, and although his neck was somewhat stretched, it is evident his feet were not entirely clear of the floor, unless he drew them up while hanging himself. His suspenders were twisted into a cord and tied tightly around his neck also; a handkerchief was drawn closely around his head and over his mouth, indicating that he attempted to suspend or strangle himself with them.

He was left suspended in his cell till this afternoon, when the body was taken down and buried. Citizens had free access to the cell all forenoon. Some blame is attached to the jailer for not securing the prisoner so as to prevent his taking his own life. He has expressed a wish of late that his wife would live, but at first only wanted to hear she was dead and then he would be satisfied.

PRESIDENTIAL.

Ohio Democracy Nominate George H. Pendleton.

CINCINNATI, October 21.—The Cincinnati Enquirer, of to-morrow morning, will present the name of George H. Pendleton, as the choice of the Democracy of Ohio and the Northwest for the next President of the United States. The Enquirer enjoyed great celebrity as being the leading organ of Douglas in 1860. In about six months the National Convention of the Democratic party will meet for the purpose of selecting their candidates for President and Vice President of the United States, in common with the Democracy of other States. Our friends in Ohio have a preference, and that preference we propose to express; it is a preference that none who know the sentiment of our people, who have seen it manifested in many different ways in the local press, in private letters, and in political Conventions, will dispute. In the name of the victorious Democracy of Ohio, who but the other day sent greeting to the Democracy of the Union that Ohio was redeemed from the rule of fanaticism, that she had vindicated the Constitution and arrested the bold career of the madmen who have been trampling upon the rights and liberties of the people; in their name we this day seize upon the honor of presenting the claims of Ohio's native son, Hon. Geo. H. Pendleton, to the Democracy of the country as Ohio's choice for the high office of President of the United States. He is not only Ohio's choice, but he is the favorite of Kentucky, who will send a full delegation for him to the National Convention; Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, and Minnesota will not be behind Ohio and Kentucky in their devotion to Ohio's noble and trusted statesman. He is by all odds this day the strongest candidate in the Northwest, and, we have reason to believe, in the United States. He possesses in a great degree the Democratic popular confidence which was given to Stephen A. Douglas, and upon him has fallen in the Northwest the mantle of that eminent man. A gentleman, a scholar and a statesman, whose history and character are known to the country and everywhere recognized and respected by all parties; in the very prime of life, with a mind inured to cultivation and study, with the habits of a profound thinker, the experience of the tried legislator, eminently sound in judgment, eloquent in the expression of his thoughts, candid in his political views, with an integrity that was never questioned, he is that model of a President which we had in the early days of the Republic. With him as our candidate, standing upon the platform of the constitution, equal justice to all sections of our common country, with equality to all, special privileges to none, the same currency for the bondholders, that the people are compelled to receive, the prompt payment of the public debt as it falls due in the legal tender of the nation, the immediate restoration of the Southern States to the Union, with their full share of Representatives in both branches of the Government, as guaranteed by the Constitution, and universal amnesty for all political offenses; with such a platform, and George H. Pendleton as its exponent, we will sweep Ohio by 50,000 majority, and also the country, as we did with Franklin Pierce in 1852, when the conqueror of Mexico, Gen. Scott, was the candidate of the opposition.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, October 21, 1867.

MURDER AND SUICIDE.

Thomas Mulane, who was released from the Penitentiary last Saturday, where he had been incarcerated on a charge of attempting to kill, this morning cut his wife's throat, and then cut his own. Both bodies were taken to the station house in Williamsburgh.

SALE OF CORPORATION LAND.

$120,000 worth of corporation land was sold at auction to-day, bringing good prices.

BURGLAR SENTENCED.

Wm. Davis, a burglar, was sentenced to the State Prison for five years to-day.

ADDRESS TO BISHOP POTTER.

The Episcopal clergy of this city presented Bishop Potter to-day, in Trinity Chapel, with an address congratulating him on his safe return to this diocese from the great English Council.

PERSONAL.

Generals Sheridan and Clinton B. Fiske are at the Fifth Avenue Hotel.

ATTEMPT TO BREAK JAIL.

An attempt to break jail at the tombs was discovered in season to prevent its being carried out.

THE RIOT FUND.

Five hundred dollars of the riot fund has been paid to the widow of officer McChesney, murdered on Saturday, and she will draw $300 per annum from the police fund. The funeral takes place to-morrow, attended by a large detachment of police.

THE SUMNER SCANDAL.

A Boston correspondent of the Express states that owing to the intimacy of Baron Holstein, of the Prussian Legation, with the wife of Chas. Sumner, the latter procured his withdrawal from Washington, the result of the affair being that Mrs. Sumner has gone to Europe, and the Sumner establishment in Washington is broken up. Nothing criminal is alleged.

LOYAL TENNESSEEANS TO BE REIMBURSED.

A Nashville special to the Express says the Legislature will act favorably upon the recommendation of Gov. Brownlow for the reimbursement of loyal citizens for losses sustained during the war.

FORGERS ARRESTED.

F. N. Hill, alias Edward Williams, and an accomplice have been arrested as the supposed authors of a number of successful forgeries in the way of orders on mercantile houses in this city.

SAN FRANCISCO.

Indian Outrages in Idaho and Oregon---Strike Among the Miners at an End---Terrible Consequence of a Family Feud.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 19.—The steamship Golden City, for Panama, sailed to-day, with $529,645 in treasure, $307,415 for New York. Senator Conness, Representative elect Johnson, and Gens. McCook and W. H. French are passenger.

Advices from the North to October 15th state that the Indians in Oregon and Idaho continue their depredations. The murderers of the Ahern and Allen party were captured, and proved to be a band of Kootenaes. They were surrendered by the chief on the spot, and another hung. The remainder were placed under guard.

The strike in the Idaho mines was ended, and the companies commenced work again, some paying the advance demanded.

A dispatch states that on the day of the election at Little Bake, Mendocino county, a shooting affray occurred between two families named Coates and Frost. Five of the Coates were killed and three dangerously wounded; one Frost was killed and another mortally wounded. A feud has long existed between the parties.

The existence of vipers in France is more common than may be generally supposed. At the sitting of the Council-General for the Cote-d'Or, it was shown that in 1866 this department alone paid in rewards for the destruction of these reptiles 17,908 francs, which at thirty centimes a head gives a total of 59,694 vipers killed, and for which the reward was claimed.

Italian Troops on Frontier Reinforced.

Excitement Over Threats of French Intervention.

Italy to Enforce September Treaty.

The French Expedition Abandoned.

The Grand Vizier in Candia.

Our Treaty with Russia Ratified.

Report of Garibaldi's Escape Confirmed.

Resignation of Minister Rattazzi.

No Answer to Napoleon's Ultimatum.

The Papal Revolution.

FLORENCE, October 19, P. M.—The situation of Italy towards Rome is still embarrassing and critical. The Italian troops on duty on the frontier line have been reinforced, and the officers acting under the King are making increased efforts for the satisfactory discharge of their instructions. All Italy is excited in a remarkable manner at the threat of French intervention, as reported from Paris, and the actual war preparations which are being carried on at Toulon. Reports have been received in this city from Rome, dated Friday evening, which state that a fierce battle took place between the revolutionary invaders and the Papal troops the previous afternoon, in which the soldiers of the Pope retook the town of Veroli, the Garibaldian force sustaining heavy loss.

LONDON, October 20.—Important official dispatches have just been received from Paris in relation to affairs in Italy. It is announced that Italy has positively pledged herself to enforce the provisions of the September treaty. The Paris Patrie says the French troops were so posted that they could have been marched across the Alps at a moment's notice. This decided step of the Italian Government is accepted in Paris as rendering French intervention unnecessary, and the French expedition has therefore been abandoned. The insurgents, in consequence of this unlooked for attitude of King Victor Emanuel, have evacuated the Pontifical territory.

PARIS, October 20, P. M.—It is rumored to-day that the leading European powers will unite with France in joint intervention for the settlement of the Roman question and preservation of peace. The French Cabinet has addressed a circular note to its representatives at foreign courts, solemnly pledging France to enforce the stipulations of the treaty of September.

The excitement and anxiety created by the rumors continually arising here are very great, and rentes are fluctuating.

FLORENCE, October 21.—The reports that Garibaldi has disappeared from Capera are reiterated, and seem to meet no contradiction. Rattazzi has resigned the head of the Cabinet. He will be succeeded by General Menobrea. Some of the bands of insurgents still remain in Papal territory, and the evacuation is not complete, as was previously reported.

PARIS, October 21.—No answer has yet been returned by the King of Italy to the ultimatum of Emperor Napoleon.

LONDON, Evening, October 21.—The accounts of affairs in the States of the Church are conflicting. Telegrams from Florence represent that Menotti Garibaldi not only maintains his position in Roman territory, but his command has been reinforced, and is hourly growing larger. On the other hand dispatches originating in Rome flatly contradict these statements, and assert that Menotti, with all his followers, has fled from the Papal dominions and abandoned the attempt on Rome.

FLORENCE, October 21, Evening.—Rattazzi addressed a large crowd of people, who were making a demonstration in favor of Garibaldi. He declared in a most emphatic manner, that Victor Emanuel would maintain the honor of the nation in the crisis through which it was passing. Garibaldi has issued a proclamation which adds to the prevailing excitement. He exhorts the people of Italy to persevere in their patriotic struggle, and bids them hope that national honor may yet be redeemed.

NEW YORK, October 21.—The Herald's cable special says the French Minister has assured the Pope of the aid of France, and that a French fleet and troops left Toulon to-night, for Rome. It is rumored that Garibaldi has escaped from Caprera, and is in Italy.

Candia.

MARSEILLES, October 21.—Accounts are received from the Island of Candia of the arrival of the Turkish Grand Vizier and other members of the Commission of Inquiry. The Grand Vizier had met a deputation of Cretan insurgents at Canea, in the presence of all consuls of foreign powers. The members of the deputation insisted upon the union of the Island with Greece.

Treaty Ratified.

ST. PETERSBURG, October 21.—The treaty with the United States for the sale of the Russian possessions in North America has been ratified by the Russian Government.

The French Cable.

PARIS, October 21.—The Journal Des Debats denies that the French Government has granted a subvention in aid of the new Atlantic cable from Brest to the American coast.

Farragut Gone to Lisbon.

LONDON, October 21.—The American squadron, under Farragut, has sailed from Portsmouth to Lisbon.

Prize Fight Broken Off.

LONDON, October 21.—The prize fight between Mace and O'Baldwin has been given up.

North German Parliament.

BERLIN, October 21.—The North German Parliament has passed the federal military service bill. The new postal treaty between the North German Confederation and the United States was signed to-day. The North German Parliament adopted a domestic postal law, to operate everywhere within the borders of the Confederation. The bill contains a clause declaring private letters inviolable.

An Informer Shot.

DUBLIN, October 21, Evening.—The informer Reilly has been shot and badly wounded near this city. Several policemen have recently been fired on in the night, but none hurt. The authorities are engaged in a vigorous search for the perpetrators of these outrages.

New Market Races.

NEW MARKET, October 21, Evening.—The third series of autumn races at New Market commenced to-day. Pasicrucian was the winner of the Criterion stakes. Van Amburg took the one hundred sovereigns plate.

Fenian Trials.

DUBLIN, October 21.—The trials of Gen. Nagle, Col. Warren and others prominent state prisoners implicated in the Fenian conspiracy will commence on the 25th of November, before a special commission. It is said the United States Government will provide for the defense of Nagle and Warren.

Bank Suspension.

LIVERPOOL, Evening, October 21.—The Royal Bank of Liverpool has suspended payments, and closed its doors. Its liabilities are estimated at £4,500,000. It is thought the bank will be able to resume business.

PARIS, October 21.—Under favorable news rentes have an upward tendency, and there is greater firmness on the Bourse.

BY MAILS.

The Empress and Prince Imperial, accompanied by M. Lavellette, were cruising about the coast of Biarube in a steam gunboat, and at nightfall got into a ship's boat in order to land at San Jean de Luz, but the pilot missed the entrance of the harbor, and ran the boat ashore. The Empress, the Prince and M. Lavellette were fortunately landed safely, but the pilot was drowned.

The Patrie announces that the Empress of Austria will not accompany the Emperor to Paris. His Majesty is expected on the 26th.

At Mutzgie and at the auxiliary arms establishments of Framont, France, the hands were working night and day. Seven hundred rifles a week were turned out, and 1,400 will be soon issued per week.

The Prussian Government will lay before the North German Parliament a bill demanding the grant of an extraordinary supply of ten million thalers for two years, for the purpose of increasing the German fleet.

The St. Petersburg correspondent of the London Times writes that the Russians are reinforcing their troops in the southwestern provinces. This unmistakable move in accompanied by the Moscow Gazette varying its habitual vituperation of France by an the occasional insertion of an article pointing out the advantages of a Russo-French alliance against Germany and the East.

According to a Paris journal, Prince Napoleon urges the Emperor in the clearest and most positive manner to pronounce the pacific policy of France by proclaiming the absolute principle of non-intervention.

The Golos of St. Petersburg argues that Russia should stir up the bellicose ardor of France and Prussia, in order that we may derive from them similar benefits to those which they reaped at our expense during the Crimean campaign.

SOUTH AMERICA.

Paper Money System of Brazil---The Military Situation---Opening of the Amazon, &c., &c.

NEW YORK, October 21.—The steamer South America, from Rio Janeiro September 25th, Bahia 30th, Pernambuco October 2d, Para 8th, and St. Thomas 15th, has arrived.

The Brazilian Parliament restricted the issue of paper money to fifty millions reis. The Chief of Police at Rio was enforcing the continental system of requiring keepers of hotels, &c., to furnish daily lists of guests and denounce suspected persons.

It is confirmed that the allied fleet had passed the batteries of Curupaity and were within range of Humaita. The iron-clads suffered to some extent, and had thirty-three killed and wounded. The Paraguayans were actively strengthening their main lines of defense. The allies were well supplied, and had fifteen days' provisions.

The river was formally opened September 7th, by a grand ceremonial at Para. No foreigners were present, though invited. A diamond bed was discovered near Urbeba.

Troops are still being sent to the River Platte.

A ministerial crisis occurred at Buenos Ayres, and a new ministry was formed. Much uneasiness was felt at Montevideo from the suspicion of a proposed attempt at revolution.

The United States flag-ship Guerriere will soon leave Rio for Bahia. The Wasp had arrived at Rio from the Platte. The Pawnee was at Bahia.

The Emperor of Brazil, in his speech closing Parliament, said the government expected an early and honorable conclusion of the struggle with Paraguay, in which the national pride is engaged.

NASHVILLE.

Shooting Affray---United States District Court, &c., &c.

NASHVILLE, October 21.—Yesterday on the Charlotte turnpike, near town, B. F. Foster, son of the late Senator Foster, while riding home in his buggy, was shot by E. H. Douglass, son of Byrd Douglass, merchant, of this city. Douglass was accompanied by his brother Hugh. Foster was wounded in the hand and breast, though not dangerously. The parties occupy high social positions, and the affair excites much discussion. Col. Stone, Police Commissioner, to-day bound the Douglasses over to the Criminal Court for trial, each giving bonds in $2,000.

The District Court of the United States, Judge Trigg, convened at the capital. Business is likely to be retarded for want of a District Attorney, the office being vacant, and the President unable to appoint under the tenure of office law. It is expected, however, that Justice Swayne will appoint a temporary attorney.

The investigation of the charges against Col. Hull, Warden of the Penitentiary, have been brought to a close by his confession of the charges. He will be tried for embezzlement in the Criminal Court. Hon. Thos. McElwee has been elected Warden in his place.

NEW ORLEANS.

The Vote on the Convention Question---Deaths from Yellow Fever---Emigrants Not Permitted to Land.

NEW ORLEANS, October 21.—Special orders No. 166 declare the total vote of the State of Louisiana in the election on the question of a Convention to be 79,174, of which 75,083 were for a Convention, and 4,006 against, 85 blank. A majority of the whole number registered having voted, and a majority of the votes cast being for a Convention, the delegates elected are notified to assemble in Convention at Mechanics' Hall, New Orleans, on November 23d. The order is signed by General Mower.

The mortality reports give the number of yellow fever interments for the twenty-four hours ending yesterday morning at thirty-five, and for the same time ending this morning, thirty-one. The weather is again oppressively warm and the epidemic consequently not decreasing.

A ship load of emigrants which arrived here from Europe, was not permitted to land, owing to the prevailing epidemic. The ship was ordered below the city, until her passengers can be taken on board a steamer and conveyed North without landing here.

Mob Spirit in Richmond.

RICHMOND, October 21.—This afternoon Hunnicutt, in a speech on Capitol Square, denounced the northern men here, whereupon one of them said he was "a damned liar." At this the negroes attempted to mob the man, but instead caught an unoffending German, and were about to kill him. The police succeeded in rescuing the man, but were followed to the station house by the negroes, who behaved in a very disorderly manner, throwing stones, &c. All is quiet now, but there is much excitement in regard to the election.

Billiard Tournament in Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, October 21.—The grand billiard tournament opened at Melodeon Hall to-night and was attended by a large crowd. The first game was between Fred. Ackerman, of Cincinnati, and Vermeulen, of Chicago. Ackerman won, making 300 against Vermeulen's 168. Ackerman's average was 16⅔, and his last run was 98. The second game was between Parker, of Cleveland, and Snyder, of Louisville, Parker winning. The winner's average was 10½.

Meeting at Savannah---Disturbance.

SAVANNAH, October 21.—A very large Radical mass meeting of about 4,000 negroes and a few whites, was held to-night. It was addressed by C. H. Hopkins and a few other whites, and Bradly Sims and other negroes. There was no disturbance until after the meeting, when there were several collisions between country and city negroes. They were promptly suppressed by the police.

Kansas Pacific Railway.

ST. LOUIS, October 21.—The Government Commissioners accepted to-day another section of the Kansas Pacific Railway, extending to Hayes City, to which point possenger and freight trains are now running. The road is graded some forty miles beyond Fort Hayes, and iron is being rapidly laid.

Return of Arch-Bishop Spaulding.

BALTIMORE, October 21.—Arch-Bishop Spaulding, who returned Saturday from Europe, was welcomed on Sunday by an immense gathering of the clergy and laity and others at the Cathedral, where he delivered a sermon on the late Eighteenth Centenary celebration at Rome.

Suicide in Boston.

BOSTON, October 21.—J. T. Stevens, formerly a merchant and recently in the employ of the Congressional Committee in session in this city on the subject of the treatment of Union prisoners, committed suicide this morning by hanging.

Schooner and Fourteen Men Lost.

LEWISTOWN, ME., October 21.—The schooner Winona, with fourteen hands, including the Captain, was lost October 12th, having capsized while racing.

Yellow Fever Deaths in Mobile.

MOBILE, October 21.—There were six yellow fever interments during the past two days.

Arrival.

QUEBEC, October 21.—The steamer Austrian, from Liverpool, has arrived.

Gospel Themes in Nature's Elements

The Hail.

Fourth Sermon of the Series, by Alex. Clark.

On Sabbath night the First Methodist Church had a double audience, its own, which is very large, and that of the Young Men's Christian Association, who requested the pastor, Mr. Clark, to preach before them, requesting that the fourth sermon of his regular series should be the subject for the occasion. There remain yet two sermons of the present series, on next Sabbath evening, "The Rainbow," and the following Sabbath evening, "The Snow." Each sermon is complete in itself, yet those who hear the whole series will appreciate them the more. We never witnessed more profound attention than that which the audiences have given Mr. Clark from the beginning. We are able to give a verbatim report of Sabbath night's sermon:

Some of you may recollect a phenomenon which occurred one clear, starry October night in the year 1858. There was observed to stream upward from the horizon, north, east, south and west, simultaneously, flashes of electric light—long pendant curtains in scattered but parallel belts, lifted up and up, higher and higher, as if mighty angels, striking a tent for the world, were drawing and fastening the brilliant folds together at a lofty center in the zenith. There the royal drapery was secured, and thence its grand, white, quivering breadths swept down in beauty to the earth; while beneath its ample dome, that night, thousands of people stood and wondered in solemn joy.

So is the light of Truth rising all around us these latter days, out of history, out of science, out of art, out of commerce, of politics, out of literature, out of all things in Nature as well as out of all impulses and promptings in grace, rising as reflected light from God's own broad firmament of Revelation; and beneath the magnificent pavilion thoughtful men stand and contemplate the wondrous scene. The truths of the Gospel are breaking irresistably forth from the low obscurities of sect and party, ceremony and service, and beaming in blessed recognition of the Divine mind and Will even from the world's dim and dumb materialities, and rising to a heavenly center of radiation beyond the stars. The spreading folds of the new tabernacle, beneath which all men may stand and worship, shall be radiant with the light of science blended with the light of revelation, the beautiful of this world mingling with the beautiful of the celestial world, and all suspended properly over us from the throne of our risen Christ. Then let us look for truth in all creations around us, and in all phenomena above us, and expect it to open before us, and radiate about us from its exalted center for evermore. Such a pavilion is the Church. Under its high and spreading folds are safety and satisfaction. The free and unsectarianized church of Jesus Christ uses all the good and beautiful and true of this world and weaves them in with the graces and glories which fall from Heaven; and beneath these merciful surroundings, the heavenly sustaining the earthly, the souls of men are inspired with hope and prompted to work as well as worship. This is the eternal refuge of Truth. The gates of hell shall not prevail against it. It shall stand illuminated forever. Its light shall increase; its glory shall intensify; its folds shall enlarge. Nothing shall shadow its beauty or disturb its security while immortality endures. Within its sacred enclosure there is room for all the human race, and the way is open day and night, and a thousand welcomes to every soul that enters.

"The church of Christ that He hath hallowed here
To be His house, is scattered far and near,
In North and South, and East and West abroad,
And yet in earth and heaven through Christ her Lord
The church is one."

But there are innumerable false refuges all around in the dark distances which lie outside the pavilion of the church. Beyond the horizons of Heaven's revealed light, and within its range, but sheltered in mammon marquees are millions of immortal souls discarded and neglected in error and sin. With our thoughts upon these imperiled ones, dear relatives and friends, many of them, we announce the text:

"The hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies."—Isaiah xxviii:17.

In former discourses of this series, your attention has been directed to cultivating agencies in nature, such as the Dew and the Rain. To-night we come to speak of an influence, formed by similar phenomena of evaporation and condensation, which is known only as a destroyer—The Hail. Where hail is mentioned in the Bible, it is to indicate confusion and calamity.

The hail is an agent of destruction and death, teaching the lessons that God [illegible] derange, reverse and destroy, as well as to nurture, advance and protect. You have not noticed in reading the Scriptures, another fact: the hail is associated with fire—a touching of extremes among the elements—showing that the formation of the icy drops is intimately connected with electricity. Then the deeper lesson here again is that God's judgments are intimately connected with His love, that the one attribute is complimented by the other, that it is a God of Justice who exercises Mercy, and that the one is as essential to the Divine character as the other. Now, as thousands of years ago, the laws of science are corroborated by the statements of Scripture, their one common Author being "the same yesterday, and to-day and forever." Wherever the test of scientific truth is applied to the sacred writings, the Bible is fully sustained down to the minutest particulars. "The hammer of the Geologist shall never be able to break in pieces the Rock of Ages," nor the telescope of the scientist to detect a spot on the Sun of Righteousness. And in all the infinite ranges of Revelation and Providence between the Word which was in the Beginning and the Word made Flesh, there is not an object or an incident which does not evidence, when studied and interpreted, the truthfulness of the Bible and its exact adaptations to the wants of men. The laws which form Dew and Rain are the same that govern the Hail—evaporation, condensation, and gravitation. The only difference is in the fact that the humidity of the atmosphere in the formation of hail is elevated to higher, swifter currents of opposing winds, in a temperature where it condenses into compacter particles, than those which in calmer regions, compose the snow, or, in still milder, the rain, or, in the mildest of all, the dew.

A traveler, in describing a hail-storm at Constantinople, represents the ice drops as being the size of apples, and their descent as accompanied by a sound like rumbling thunder, or like the noise of innumerable carriages rolling furiously over a pavement.

Balls of ice weighing more than a pound rattled like grape-shot among the shipping, and stripped the trees of foliage and limbs, leaving them almost bare in their desolation. The spectacle is said to have been awful beyond description. The roofs were crushed in; windows were riddled like tissue paper; vineyards were cut to pieces; oars were shivered to splinters in the boatmen's hands; animals were beaten to death in the fields; men were killed and wounded in the streets. It was as if the heavens had suddenly frozen over, and as suddenly been broken to pieces by the tramp of heaven's artillery into irregular fragments of ice and precipitated to the earth. Such occurrences in Oriental lands are frequent as they are fearful, and give peculiar significance to the passages of Scripture just read in your hearing.

The most tremendous hail mentioned in the Bible is that alluded to in the book of Revelation, "Every stone was about the weight of a talent." In comparison with this all other sizes and weights of hailstones are diminished almost to noiseless dew. A talent among the Greeks was a weight equivalent to fifty-seven pounds avoirdupois, and among the Hebrews, to about ninety pounds. What an appalling representation of power and devastation! But all these references have a meaning, and to discover something of their significance is more directly the object of this evening's discourse. We have seen that upon the responsive bosom of the earth, vegetation is refreshed and increased by the dew which distils in quiet hours and cloudless nights; and have learned, by this illustration, how the Holy Spirit descends to nurture expectant hearts. We have seen how the rain which revives the earth and promotes its myriad growths, falls from clouds and out of darkness in due seasons and proportions; and have learned how God's mercy issues out of sorrowful surroundings and inscrutable circumstances to bless the waiting and willing soul. But we see that hail has its origin at a higher elevation, above the level of rain-clouds, and in the region of fierce currents and cold; that it forms and falls in accordance with a law which regulates the general temperature and purity of the whole earth's atmosphere.

The seeming calamities which result from the fall of the hail are really evidences that the Supreme Creator regards the welfare of the universe, and maintains it oftentimes by disarranging the local and isolated affairs of this world. In order that the infinite purposes of God may be accomplished, he frequently destroys the inefficient to accommodate the essential agents of his will; or rather makes room for the new by removing the old, as an architect who clears a place of its rubbish and ruin that the substantial and beautiful building may be reared. For there never was a city built until thousands of cumbering trees were felled, and millions of blades of unneeded grass were trodden underfoot. The debris accumulating in unsightly masses along Fifth street, these latter days, obstructing travel and business, is patiently endured because it shows a power at work with pick and spade opening and enlarging ways to cleanse the city for time to come; and the miniature rocky mountain range stretching in front of our church to-night is a substantial argument that rough places shall be made smooth; that the irony week-day noises of our streets shall be silenced, and that Sabbath worshippers by and by shall be undisturbed by clanging hoofs and wheels along the pavement. So the Maker and Builder of all things uses his own material throughout the wide domain of his universe in his own way, forever enlarging and glorifying his creation, although sometimes tearing our hindering fabrics to pieces, and apparently confusing and destroying even what his own hands have permitted; but all with a benevolent object in view which shall be realized only in the light of eternity. Now as the rain falls from the clouds to refresh and beautify the thirsty earth, so mercy descends to comfort and cheer the responsive heart. But above the rain-clouds are the hail-clouds. So above God's mercy is his justice. It was to satisfy justice that the Son of God suffered for sin. God is love; but divine love is always pure and true and just. Mercy is purchased and proffered to the world, by the blood of Jesus Christ, the just atoning for man, the unjust! Although mercy is full and free and impartial as the rain that falls upon the grass, yet above the blessed clouds from which mercy rains on willing souls, there is the Eternal Immutable Justice which, in an appointed way and time, will meet the impenitent.

For God will overcome all error and wrong, and over the ruins of conquered obstinacy broaden his Kingdom of Truth. He builds in only the good, shaping and fitting it to his plans; and he removes and destroys the bad, regardless of its appearance. He recognizes in every man his free agency and permits him to believe and live, or disbelieve and die, as he will. God's will is that no one should perish. Man's own will is the wrong will—the will that makes confusion and trouble—the only will in the universe that chooses death rather than life, for the fallen angels have no Jesus to die and live again for them. And because God's mercy is rejected, His justice, which caused His dear Son to suffer, is mocked; and upon this wilful disobedience and persistent contempt, God's righteous displeasure falls to show the integrity of His throne, and His regard for the welfare of all worlds, even if this world should in belts of its surface be scourged as beneath the dashing of the hail. But notice the wording and take the meaning of the text: "The hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies." The driving forces of God's justice are not directed against lying individuals so much as against the associations which make them lie; not against sinners so much as sin; not against souls so much as the systems of error which enwrap and enrapture them; not against people so much as policy, party, sect, and all other mammon made refuges which receive and ruin both the souls and bodies of men. But

SOME REFUGE IS REQUIRED.

In every unseared conscience there is a lurking sense of guilt. To deny it will not stifle its whispers. Light words dancing on the lips will not divert the deep sorrow from the heart. The sinner carries a weight upon his soul, as a culprit a chain in his cell. There is no moving without hearing its dreadful, discordant noise. He has read the law and stands condemned. He has dishonored himself and rejected the Savior, and now remorse sickens his soul. He knows that God is angry with the wicked every day; and he longs to be freed from his forebodings and fears. Indulgence in crime, no matter when, or by whom, or under what circumstances, brings a guilty sting, and in solemn midnights startles the sinner from his dreams to remind him of a settlement coming due, and a penalty to be paid. Then, under the burden of his condemnation, afraid to die and ashamed to live, he thinks of reconciliation. In trembling and in tears, alone, in the sweep of the tempest, homeless, helpless and forsaken, born with capacity for heaven, but exposed every moment to hell; seeing the avenger, pleading to escape, he sighs and cries, and starts and struggles for a refuge.

Yonder is a man overtaken by calamity. In an hour his home is swept away. His business is ruined. His credit is lost. Sickness, ready prowler of secular misfortune, enters his family. A loved one pales and dies. The hearse rumbles away with the dear form, and the grave receives it out of sight, and opens again and again, like a ravenous mouth greedy for more, until child after child is swallowed away. Every hope blasted, his poor heart, pierced through and through, is beating and breaking with sorrow. He suffers on alone for awhile; but strength fails, the soul becomes restless, alarmed, and craves and wrestles for a refuge.

I stand here to-night in God's name, with many young men before me, prosperous and well, yet sad-hearted, it may be, tempted, uncared for, unfriended in a city of crowding strangers, exposed to delusion and death; I stand here to preach Jesus Christ to every unsettled soul, a "hiding place from the wind, a covert from the tempest, the shadow of a great rock in a weary land." Yes, the heart needs a refuge, and in the Church of the Living God, broad, free and inviting, with its canopy of glory, and its associations of joy and peace, the burdened soul may find sweet rest forever more.

But beware of mistaken shelters. Young men in masses, seeking the truth, are being decoyed into refuges of lies! Let me warn you of some of the most dangerous of them. There is,

1. Reformatism. This is a place of compromise with the enemy of souls. He argues that a man may abandon the grosser vices, such as licentiousness, drunkenness, blasphemy and fraud. He will recommendingly say at the entrance of this false refuge, "Give up the great sins, and you are safe." And then the arch deceiver will chuckle to himself, "I'll damn that man by inches; I'll keep him busy with his small sins; I'll belittle him to his eternal ruin; I'll tempt and trap him into so many petty meannesses that he will never dream of the fearful aggregate, and when he wakes, the Heavenly doors will be shut." Self-reformer, be advised in time. Your mistake is a fatal one. Sin is a disease which brings death. The amputation of a single limb will not save you. You must be cleansed in Christ's blood from all unrighteousness, and cleansed at once. If you imagine that your sins are little sins and easily forgotten, and that your condition is as favorable as that of a score of your associates, who, like yourself, are sinners in small ways, let me tell you that you have crept into a refuge of lies. Every sin must be utterly abandoned. The heart must be changed, and the whole life not merely reformed, but transformed and conformed to the will of Christ. You must respond to His love, and be ready to do all things in honor of His name.

2. Moralism. This is another fashionable and false refuge. How the young men are crowding into it! Is there a moralist here to-night? You claim to be an upright, downright dealer. You are educated, respected and honored. You answer promptly all demands on your patriotism, sympathy and benevolence. You appreciate the institutions of your country—your home, your family, your party. You are neighborly, kind, generous, gentle-hearted and merciful. Your language is pure, chaste and elegant, your manners amiable, and your reputation untarnished.

But, after all, you govern your conduct by the outward regulations of society, and depend on your own power to resist temptation and wrong. You aim by words and works of charity to merit heaven—to rise thither by your own aspirations. You are trying to be your own Christ. You forget that in Adam all men are dead in trespasses and sins, and that only in Jesus can any man be made alive. You forget that there is but one name given under heaven and among men whereby you can be saved. Your own name is nothing. Everything in you and about you is nothing. Your good works are but a foundation of sand. In the one thing lacking are included all things needful for your salvation. Your sins must not only be put away but forgiven. Your heart must be changed, so that self will yield to Christ, and that his righteousness may be in you, the all in all for ever. Your wrappage of noble deeds is of frail and fading texture. You must be converted, and become as a little child, willing to attribute all honor to Christ who died for you, and to be led into all duty by his Spirit. You have a long record of unpardoned sins—unpardoned because unbrought to the Saviour—and you must acknowledge the account, and ask your Surety to relieve you from the obligation. Your unforgiven sins will all appear before you in the judgment day, although you may think them forgotten long ago. Heaven's bills presented, put off, repudiated, are never outlawed by lapse of time. No page or item is ever lost from that book of accounts. You are in danger now. Answer this question, though it cut you to the quick, though it prove you to be wrong, though every syllable fall on your heart like chilling hail, Are you converted? You are in arrears on Heaven's ledger for innumerable omissions of duty; and that record is as distinctly marked as any violent transgression, and can be cancelled only by the same hand that was pierced. Take Jesus with you now, and go to God and settle. Staying concealed in your mistaken shelter will never release you from the debt you owe. Better a thousand times to find yourself a bankrupt hand in hand with Christ, than to live on in uncertainty through the world's most brilliant circles, share its brightest honors and revel in its luxury and wealth—with a fearful looking for of judgment to come. Moralist, my immortal brother, purchase of the Redeemer's blood, object of his intercession to-night, rise and escape for your life, from your refuge of lies!

3. Formalism. The Formalist is the modern Pharisee, the man who will pray by the hour if anybody will look at him, but never think of such a performance in his closet! Pathways to false refuges cross and re-cross our church aisles, and are paved to our very family altars. Lip-service for sight-and-sound sake, and from habit! There are religionists to whom the Destroyer has administered chloroform, making them mumbling dreamers in the church.

Are you here and awake to-night for a wonder? You may be punctual at the sanctuary, and observant of all the ordinances. You may contribute to the support of the gospel. You may say "our church." You may pray in purest rhetoric and from loudest lungs. You may rub your hands and respond lustily to the prayers of others. You may wear a serious countenance and pronounce the most orthodox of phrases in the solemnest of tones. You may be zealous in your opposition to infidelity. You may catechise your children until they are surfeited with theology, and sick of stale platitudes which they were never born to digest. You may criticise your preacher's sermons and life with unceasing vigilance. You may go heresy-hunting among your brethren, and catch something every day. You may be walled in at home with a library of the profoundest commentaries that were ever bound.

And yet, after all, that I-am-holier-than-thou pretension shows through every crevice of your creed. The world sees a stiffness in you which it dreads as the touch of a corpse. Now, unless your religion change you from a mummy to a man, make you honest in business, pious behind counters; temperate at dinner tables; loyal to your country; affectionate to your family; neighborly at the ballot-box; patient in affliction; humble, cheerful and hopeful everywhere and always; unless it link you in brotherhood to to the poorest of God's children; unless it lead you on errands of mercy to hovels and hospitals and prisons as well as to cushioned pews and sacramental boards; unless you live Christ on week days as well as worship him on Sabbath days,—then your religion is spurious, hypocritical, and abhorrent—a refuge of lies! Its sounding brass and tinkling cymbal entice but the giddy-hearted and warn the wise to beware.

See above you, in the eternal light, the ponderous scales! Ah! God is just. You vainly imagined that your name was safe written in the Lamb's Book of Life. But that is not a book. Scales! See: read: "Mene, Mene, Tekel, upharsin,—Thou art weighed in the balances and found wanting—wanting!"

The book of gracious offers is closing. Jesus speaks sweeter words to the outside sinner than to you. The poor publican He blesses, but the formalist He leaves to change his course without a pity or a tear. There is no tender word for you in all the messages of Christ. He performs no miracle to heal the Pharisee. Unless you awake by the sound of a Saviour's anathemas, you will perish forever in your refuge of lies!

4. Spiritualism. What a dreary refuge! People in obscure rooms, in silence, in darkness, listening for sounds out of another world! Sometimes messages seem to be uttered; but from which world—above or below? Would a saint in life desire to communicate by the tipping of a wooden table? On earth among sinners, there is a more dignified and rational method of communication than this. Even the deaf, dumb, and blind have an intelligent and reliable mode of interchanging their thoughts. Has an inhabitant of Heaven gone so far back toward childhood as to blunder among table-lids and tilt contemptible stands in darkened and desolate rooms in order to be recognized! Shall the heavenly linguists forget their own mother tongue?

And yet many intellectual persons, good, honest, noble-hearted friends, are tempted into his most ghostly and gloomy of all hiding places. There are promises given of direct communications from Heaven. But the messages are often known to be false. And the spirits from Satan intrude, and blaspheme, and lie. Are they not all lying spirits, as the Scripture says? If not lying spirits, are there not peculiar laws and forces in science—in magnetism and electricity—which we have not yet discovered? For there are sounds in the clouds and in the wind which we might as reasonably translate into words from departed spirits.

Spiritualist, let me urge you to abandon all such hollow systems, and to accept the plain teaching of Jesus. He is the one Mediator—the only one, the all-sufficient one, between God and man—the man, Christ Jesus. He speaks to you all you need know from the spirit-world. He prepares a place for you, where you may see Him as He is, and be immortal by His side. Here is a message out of Heaven,—it comes from your blessed Savior to-night, "Come unto Me, and I will give you rest." "Where I am there you may be also." Only be patient concerning the glories and associations of the heavenly world, and in due time you shall see as your are seen and known as you are known. But for your soul's sake which you emperil, and for your Savior's sake whom you dishonor by believing the false spirits, retreat at once from your refuge of lies.

5. Sectarianism. There are as many church registers as there are church houses in Pittsburgh. But there is only one Lamb's Book of Life for all the ransomed sinners of the world. That is the place for your name. It is not Methodism, or Presbyterianism, or Lutheranism, or any other 'ism of men; but it is the life and power of the Son of God we preach. The different denominations are but symmetrical and convenient apartments in the one great sanctuary of the Lord. These distinct organizations are harmonious counterparts. Yet men separate themselves into sects, and magnify their consistent differences into conflicting doctrines. They build theological walls around themselves, the closer the safer; and in their narrow atmosphere and necessary shade, to doubt the orthodoxy of their neighbors. They put colored glass in intervening windows to shut out the light; they shut the doors and nestle together, as though the world were turned infidel, and they alone of all the earth held fast the faith once delivered to the saints. Such a faith, so monkishly bound, needs a new deliverance!

Now, when you find yourself up in arms in defense of your creed, pause a moment, and consider whether it is your creed or the Bible that you are in defending the Bible. You become excited when you hear your Wesley, or your Calvin, or your Luther, or your Campbell criticised; but you will stand silent and unmoved when the name of your Jesus is blasphemed! Unless you can rejoice in prosperity in other churches as heartily as in your own, and rejoice at the conversion of sinners under anybody's preaching and under any church's roof, you may write "sectarian" as a fit suffix to your name. You have been tempted through self and sect to enter a refuge of lies. 'Ist and 'ism are warp and woof of the enemy's tent-covers, and you have been deceived. You are attracted by the sound of your church-name more than by all the cries of Calvary! Verily you have your warning, and must bear the awful consequences of trimming your Christianity to a Discipline, or Confession, or Catechism, and of wounding your Lord in the house of His friends.

7. Broad-Churchism. This is one of the most open-doored and dangerous of all false refuges. It has numerous creeds and various names. It makes room for Rationalism, Unitarianism, Mormonism, Latitudinarianism, and all the wild heresies of the world. And yet it claims to be the church! It has its periodicals teeming with transcendental theories, boasting of free thought, geologizing on the Bible, humanizing Jesus Christ, popularizing Mammon, compromising with sin, and trying in a thousand ways to make salvation a matter of course, regardless of the name of Jesus and the influences of the Holy Spirit. It sneers at the evangelical efforts of Young Men's Christian Associations, ridicules revivals, depreciates the Sabbath and all the sacred ordinances, and indulges in sublime contempt for the "priests" and "priesthood" of the evangelical churches. Much more might be said of Broad-churchism, yet time will not permit, and by this brief description it may be known.

Broad-churchman, you may glory in your liberality, but it is a license which broadens into outright infidelity at last. You are in a refuge of lies; and your science and reason, "falsely so-called," will fail you in the trial hour. You must forsake your schoolish errors, and come to Christ who is the way, the truth and the life, and learn of him who is meek and lowly in heart, and there find rest to your soul.

But all these and other false refuges will be swept away.

When your body is paling and cooling for the coffin; when your life-strings are snapping asunder; when your mental vision becomes the more vivid and acute in the glimmering of eternal light; when your moral sensibilities become the most keen and candid; when the honesty of your soul shakes off its last gaudy veil—then you will realize what a poor protection is your Reformatism, your Moralism, your Formalism, your Spiritualism, your Sectarianism, and your Broad-Churchism, at the dreadful hour when you are summoned to the Judgment. Will you anticipate that awful day and take refuge in Christ?

When the lightning of conviction flashes upon your mind, and the thundering dirges of guilt roll and re-echo through all the chambers of your soul, when the dashing hail of God's justice cuts through your last false and flimsy sheltering, and chills you trembling from your miserable refuge, then you will feel what you have often heard and sung,

"Rock of Ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in thee."

Wealth is nothing, honor is nothing, reputation is nothing, everything is nothing to the awakened sinner. Philosophy stands off with arms folded, a cold hearted stranger now. Theology has no balm for the sick and dying heart. The very Bible is dim; and prayer itself is dumb. Hymns are but wailing sound. Tears freeze and fall as ice. All—all—unless Jesus be present—all are a refuge of lies. The pitiless hail sweeps in and cuts the last, last refuge to fragments. The ice-balls beat and bound and rebound in horrible sound upon its ruined foundations, and there is no salvation!

But let Jesus appear. Let the sinner but touch the hem of His garment, and the storm lulls; the hail of justice melts into drops of merciful rain; the dark clouds fade away; the sun paints rainbows over the departing gloom; the heavens are clear and calm; all the air is redolent with fragrance from the trees that grow and bloom forever by the River of Life. Every sorrow is smiled into glory, and every trouble thrills out in a song, for the weary soul has found a safe refuge at last.

Fatal Railroad Accident.

Yesterday morning, shortly after seven o'clock, an accident occurred on the Pittsburgh, Columbus and Cincinnati railroad, near Walker's Mill, in South Fayette township, about twelve miles from this city, which resulted in the death of John Lanahan, a stonemason, residing on Tunnel street. The deceased had been engaged in working on a culvert, on the line of the road, and on Sunday visited some friends residing in the vicinity of Walker's station. On Monday morning he went to the station for the purpose of getting upon the Western train. He waited some time, and when the train was approaching he laid his carpet sack down upon the platform, and started across the track, but he apparently misjudged the distance, and the engine striking him, knocked him down and passed over him, mangling his head and lacerating his body horribly, causing almost instant death. The train was stopped as soon as possible, and the remains extricated. A telegraphic dispatch was immediately forwarded to J. B. Dorrington, Esq., General Agent of the road in this city, who at once notified Mr. Alexander Aiken, undertaker on Fourth street, who proceeded in the next train to the scene of the accident, and took charge of the body, which he brought to this city, and delivered to the relatives. Last evening an inquest was held at the Mayor's office, and the jury, after hearing the testimony of Charles Hooker, conductor, George Beisel, engineer, and other officers of the train, rendered a verdict of accidental death, completely exonerating the employees of the road from all blame. The deceased was forty-eight years of age, and leaves a wife and family to mourn his loss.

COURT PROCEEDINGS

SUPREME COURT.

The regular term of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, for the Western District, commenced yesterday morning at ten o'clock.

Harvey Henderson and Wm. R. Bole, of Crawford county, on motion of Daniel Derrickson, Esq., C. R. Marsh, of Crawford county, on motion of G. Church, Esq., and Chas. S. Fetterman, of Pittsburgh, on motion of Jas. A. Lowrie, were duly admitted and qualified to practice in this Court.

The following cases were non-prossed: Crawford county Mutual Insurance Company vs. Cullum et al. Crawford county; Guthrie vs. McCracken, Clarion county; Emery vs. Belknap, Jefferson county; Loomis et al. vs Baker, Erie county; Childs vs. Matison, Jefferson; Wilson vs. Wegefarthe, Venango county; Rand et al. vs. Frisbee, Erie county.

Harris's appeal, Jefferson county. Maul vs. Rider, Jefferson county. Erie City vs. Coal Company, Erie.

Stevens's appeal, Jefferson county. Argued by Barclay for appellant, and by R. B. Wrenlow, contra.

Venango National Bank vs. Taylor, Venango county. Argued by Derrickson for plaintiff in error. No reply.

Feigel et al. vs. Robinson, Erie county. Argued by J. Ross Thompson for plaintiff in error, and James C. Marshall, contra.

Yates vs. Meadville Borough. Argued by Pearson & Church for plaintiff in error, and by Harvey Henderson, contra.

Snider vs. Kniertimer, nol. pros. Hart et al. vs. Girard Borough. Argued by Walker for plaintiff, and by Woodruff, contra.

Court then adjourned to meet this morning at ten o'clock.

THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT.—JUDGE M'CANDLESS.

The October term commenced yesterday morning.

The names of the Grand and Traverse Jurors were called, but as a quorum of the former did not answer, the charge of the Court will not be delivered until this morning.

The list of cases were then called over, after which Court adjourned until Tuesday morning.

There are forty-seven cases on the trial list, of which twenty-two are criminal, nine bankruptcy issues, twelve proceedings in rem, and four proceedings in perronem. Besides these cases there will probably be a number of indictments found by the Grand Jury.

QUARTER SESSIONS—JUDGE STOWE.

The Court met at ten o'clock yesterday morning.

AN ALDERMAN CONVICTED OF EXTORTION.

The first case called up was that of the Commonwealth vs. Edward Lynch, Alderman of the Third ward, indicted for extorting money under color or authority of his office. The information upon which the indictment was based was made by Catharine Carter, an elderly woman. She testified that on the 15th of June last she called on Alderman Lynch and stated that she wanted to bring a suit for damages sustained by false imprisonment and malicious prosecution. Previous to commencing the suit the Alderman demanded and she paid him ten dollars. Some time after paying the money she again called upon the Alderman to ascertain why the suit had not been instituted. He refused to proceed with the case, and gave as a reason that the amount she had paid him was not sufficient for the case. For the defense, J. J. Case, Esq., was called, and testified that Alderman Lynch had paid him ten dollars as a retaining fee in the case, and it was also claimed that in taking the case he was acting merely as an agent, and not in his official capacity. The jury found a verdict of guilty in the manner and form indicted.

CROSS SUITS.

James Long was arraigned on an indictment charging him with committing an assault and battery upon Patrick Duffy, a Constable in South Pittsburgh. The difficulty occurred in front of a hotel in South Pittsburgh on the 11th of August last.

A cross suit was also brought by Long for aggravated assault and battery, and both cases tried together. It was alleged by Long that Duffy struck him with a mace while he was in the magistrate office. The jury rendered a verdict of not guilty in the first case, the prosecutor, Patrick Duffy, to pay the costs, and a verdict of guilty in the last case.

ALLEGED LARCENY OF DRY GOODS.

H. Goldstein was placed on trial for the larceny of a quantity of goods from L. Schnitzer, of this city. Mr. Schnitzer testified that about the 20th of May last a quantity of goods were stolen from him. He had six silk cloaks shipped to his house on Chatham street. Defendant visited his residence to look at the cloaks and then returned. When he went away the last time one of the cloaks valued at eighteen dollars was missing. There was also stolen from his store on Wylie street about that time one bar of the value of two dollars, and nine yards of embroidery, valued at seventy-five cents a yard.

The case was on trial at the adjournment of Court.

COMMON PLEAS—JUDGE STERRETT.

In the case of Lysle vs. Wm. H. Brown, reported in Saturday's paper as on trial, the jury have not yet agreed on a verdict.

COMMON PLEAS TRIAL LIST.

The following is the trial list for to-day:

25. Chambers vs. Robinson.
72. National Refining and Storing Co. vs. Haldeman.
32. Baldwin vs. Herderson.
33. Duquesne Coal Co. vs. Pumphrey & Kidd.
34. Lamb vs. Ballou.
38. Berkerdef vs. Musgrave.
40. Wilson vs. Poor et al.
42. Gillespie vs. Lloyd.
53. Obitzer vs. Brown.
54. Coleman vs. McGowin's exrs.

ACCIDENT.—A man by the name of McLaughlin, residing on Tunnel street, this city, was quite severely injured in Birmingham on Saturday night. A horse attached to a buggy belonging to Dr. Miller, became frightened at a band of music passing along Carson street, and ran upon the sidewalk, knocking down and running over McLaughlin. Dr. Miller attended to the injured man, after which he was removed to his home.

AN ALLEGHENIAN IN THE WEST.—Mr. C. Berringer, a prominent citizen of Allegheny, has purchased a tract of over five hundred acres of land at Sneedsville, Dickson county, Tennessee, on the line of the Nashville and Northwestern Railroad. Mr. Berringer, who is an energetic business man, has remodeled the town by laying out wide streets, and a church, school house and other buildings will be erected forthwith.

BRIDGE IMPROVEMENT.—Workmen are engaged removing the boards on the foot walks of the Hand Street Bridge, preparatory to putting down a new flooring. The pine boards of the old flooring will be replaced by durable oak. This will be a great improvement to the bridge, and will be appreciated by passengers.

Public Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—A fine house greeted Mr. Chanfrau last evening, and all seemed pleased with the impersonation of the "Ticket of Leave Man." To-night he will appear in his celebrated character of "Sam," assisted by Mr. Parsloe as "Dick Jen-Kinsini."

☞ OVER THIRTEEN HUNDRED PATIENTS, sufferers from eye and ear, throat and chest diseases, testify to the skill of DR. E. S. ABORN and the superiority of his system in the treatment of those ailments. Their certificates have appeared in the newspapers of Pittsburgh, and may be seen and read at the Medical and Surgical Rooms, 134 Smithfield street.

☞ CONSUMPTION CARRIES TO THE grave yearly three-fourths of those who die of diseases of the throat and lungs, and is justly regarded as a most insatiate disease, and is justly regarded as a most insatiate monster. Coughs, Colds, Catarrh, diseases of the Throat and Chest, attended to Consumption, and their speedy cure is necessary to prevent a slow but sure death. Medicated inhalation and atomization are the most successful means yet discovered in the annals of science, to perform cures of these maladies. These systems are successfully practised by Dr. E. S. ABORN, at his Medical and Surgical Rooms, No. 134 Smithfield street, Pittsburgh.

The Daily Commercial

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1867.

THE COMMERCIAL is the largest daily paper in the State, and gives daily one-fourth more reading than any other paper in Pittsburgh. It is the only Pittsburgh paper that uses the telegraph liberally, gives full market reports, and all the news of the day.

THE election in Virginia takes place to-day. The "Conservatives" have had their hopes greatly revived by the October elections; and their expectations are based chiefly on the fact that the Radicals are divided. The result is regarded as doubtful.

THE contest in Ohio for United States Senator has already become lively. VALLANDIGHAM is on the stump with a view to influencing public opinion in his favor. Notwithstanding the chances appear to be in favor of THURMAN, VAL. professes to be perfectly confident.

THE situation of affairs in Italy has not materially changed. The threatened intervention by France is said to have created great excitement among the Italians generally, and it is not probable that the threat can be executed without an explosion and one that may involve all Europe.

THE St. Louis Democrat, is attributing the result of the elections in Ohio and Pennsylvania to a scheme of the "Conservative Republicans" to force upon the country a particular Presidential candidate. There is nothing in the vote of either State—nothing in the sayings or doings of any class of Republicans—nothing in the thoughts or intentions of anybody anywhere, to justify such an inference. The truth is, in the most radical sections of both States there has been the heaviest falling off. The Democrat stands alone in crediting the absurd idea put forth. Let not the Democrat disguise to itself the truth, nor attempt to delude its readers with a foolish invention.

JUDGE THURMAN'S "EMPTYINGS."

In old times, when Yankee housewives were accustomed to brew, for family use, a cheap, wholesome kind of beer, they found, as the liquor run low in the cask, that the yeast, or, as it was called, "emptyings," mixing with the beer spoiled it for drinking. This gave rise to a metaphor in the popular language, applied in various ways, and especially to a speaker who had nothing to say that was worth saying, or who spun out his talk to a tedious and profitless length. The people would say of such a one, that he was "running emptyings." This not very splendid but significant figure might, with great propriety, be applied to the speech delivered to the Democrats on Saturday evening. It looks like the sediments of Mr. THURMAN's unsuccessful campaign speeches in Ohio—both in statements and style, indicating a near approach to the bottom.

From this performance, it would seem that Judge THURMAN's historical views and political theories embrace less than three years of the past. His historic era does not include such minor events as a rebellion, a four years' war, a Government assailed and defended, a mighty army mustered, hundreds of battles fought, &c., &c. These things occurred before his historic period began. To his view the mountain of national debt sprang up mysteriously, somehow out of a Radical administration. The heavy load of taxation came from the same quarter, somehow. It is commonly reckoned a consequence of the Democratic slaveholders' rebellion, but as the Judge entirely ignores that slight affair, he leads his confiding auditors to attribute it and the national debt to the invention of the Radicals.

The crudities of the speech are only equalled by the incorrectness of its statements. In the figures and statistics, we have found such gross errors, and those with so evident an intention to mislead the judgment of the hearers of the speech, that we have no confidence in those which we have not tested. The population of the United States is stated as thirty-one millions, whereas it was that eight or nine years ago. The National debt is declared to be greater than that of England. The valuation of property in the United States is placed at fourteen thousand million dollars, when, by the census of 1860, it was over sixteen thousand million, and increasing at the rate of one hundred and twenty-six per cent. in a decade. There are other statements in reference to debt and taxation in England and the United States that are wide of the mark. But the political speaker of to-day that is oblivious of the rebellion, can hardly be expected to deal exactly with national statistics. The omission of the war was a happy rhetorical expedient to save the credit of the Democracy in the estimation of Webster street.

NOMINATIONS AND HOW TO MAKE THEM.

The City Executive Committee will be called upon, within a day or two, to arrange the preliminaries for the ensuing municipal contest. The usage of the party had been to nominate candidates through the delegate system; but, in consequence of a general dissatisfaction resulting from abuses in this method of making nominations, the Executive Committee, four years ago, suggested that the next bi-ennial nomination should be made by a direct vote. The plan was adopted, but owing to the loose manner in which the primary election was held, and the want of proper discrimination between party friends and party enemies, the result was far from satisfactory. The question as to which system shall be adopted in the present canvass is still an open one. As the limits of the city have been largely increased, and we are about organizing under a new charter as it were, the committee should consider this question carefully, and decide it as best they can. They should by all means confer with the leading members of the party in the new districts, and consult their wishes in the premises. The reasons for this step are various, and will readily suggest themselves.

Our present purpose, however, is to speak more directly with reference to the character of the candidates, than to the manner of their nomination. If we wish to retain our party ascendency, control our municipal affairs, and shape the laws for this wealthy and progressive community, we must see to it that none but good and competent men are placed in power—not merely active "party workers," "popular fellows," etc., but men possessed of high character, undoubted executive ability and recognized fitness. One of the most important facts developed in our popular elections, of late years, more especially the most recent one, is that the Republican party vote cannot be relied upon unless proper persons are nominated for office. This is just as it should be, and indicates that the party, unlike the Democracy, cannot be induced to vote any and every ticket which their leaders may make for them. If the ticket does not suit the intelligent, conscientious voter, he either votes against it or does not vote at all. Even the latter alternative, which is generally resorted to, is a severe rebuke to our politics leaders and ought to beget reflection. In the late election in this State, a dozen counties can be pointed out in which the Republicans lost important offices by not placing suitable men in nomination. These local mismanagements had their effects on the State ticket, and one of the most important offices in the State was thus sacrificed. There are thousands of sincere Republicans in every county who cannot be induced to support indifferent nominations. The late elections abundantly prove this fact, and political leaders are fully aware of it. If the lesson is to be heeded, then let there be a thorough reform at once inaugurated. In this county we have not lost any of our local officers; nor are we likely to, but there is room for reform here as well as elsewhere. We must bring our candidates fully up to the level of our political principles, and not attempt to carry any one into office by mere party machinery. These remarks will apply to our approaching municipal contest, and we urge upon our party friends the importance and necessity of heeding the suggestions. The methods resorted to by aspirants for office are well known to every politician, and his duty in assisting the worthy and discountenancing the unworthy, should be promptly and fearlessly discharged. The most indifferent men are frequently induced to enter a contest by the flattery and falsehoods of designing "friends," and too often succeed—only to disgrace themselves and the party to which they belong. If a man, through mere lust for office, from lack of a proper estimate of his own abilities, or from any improper or unworthy motive, seeks to thrust himself upon the popular suffrage, let him be told plainly, at every street corner, that he is not the man for the place. The common and fatal practice of party friends and party leaders, in such cases is, never to discourage any candidate—never to intimate, in the slightest degree, that the party seeking his influence is unfit for the place. This is all wrong. If men would speak their minds honestly, as they should do, many who canvass around for political influence and prestige would never succeed in placing their names before the public. They would become disgusted with themselves at the very outset, and quietly throw aside their aspirations. On the other hand, where a man of worth is known to be in the field, or can be induced to accept the office, let him be encouraged in every possible way. Let him understand that the party is with him, and that there is no fears of his being overborne in the contest by some brawling and brainless opponent. By these and other means which will suggest themselves to the intelligent reader, let the work of reform at once begin. The time for reform has come; the necessity is upon us; and if we are wise we will heed the lessons of the hour.

THE CONVENTION.

The convention to meet this evening in the First Presbyterian Church, and which is to continue three days, is expected to be a large one. It convenes under auspices calculated to insure public respect—those of the Young Men's Christian Association. The popular idea is, that the Christian denominations, whatever there may be in their doctrinal creeds or form of organization to justify their separation from each other, should in the practical work of doing good, be fellow laborers, that they should work together and not in antagonism or mutual indifference; that they should, in some way, have a common field and plan where they can jointly strive for the advancement of the common interest of humanity. The Christian Association appears to accord with this idea, and to offer the kind of agency for successfully attaining the end contemplated.

The themes of discussion named in the programme harmonize with this common design of doing good by a united effort. Corresponding resolutions and actions will no doubt follow. Without transcending our sphere as a public journal, or trespassing on that of the convention, we may invite their kindly consideration for a large class of persons who are too often overlooked. We mean the class of young men and boys in cities and large towns, who are necessarily absent from their homes learning trades or some kind of business. The streets, on a holiday when they are off duty, or on any Sabbath day of the year, show how large a class this is. Their social relations, speaking generally, are only with each other, and being temporarily away from their homes, the street is their only convenient place of meeting for social intercourse.

We have, on former occasions, suggested the opening of reading rooms in different parts of our own city, places convenient to the great manufacturing establishments, where these young men might resort for improvement and society during the leisure evenings of the week, and where, under suitable regulations, a portion of the Sabbath days might be advantageously spent. A single, central room, however liberal its appointments and conditions, does not meet the necessities of the case. We believe it would be to the advantage, as well as credit, of proprietors of the large establishments to combine in different localities of the city, to open, at their own expense, such rooms for free access to their employees, and place them under the supervision of the Young Men's Association.

As our design is simply to make the suggestion in behalf of the class named, we do not attempt to argue the case. Nor do we ignore what is already laudably done, in various ways, for the young men of the city. But there is still a large number, virtually homeless in the city, industrious, not dissipated or vicious, for the improvement of whose leisure hours and Sabbath days no adequate or available provision is made. The friendly and Christian offices solicited would undoubtedly be gladly recognized and improved by many of them.

Grain Movement and Railroad Earnings.

The receipts of sixteen prominent railroads, of which the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago is one, for the month of September, show an average increase in the gross of 17 per cent. over the corresponding period last year. This increase is due to the extraordinary shipments of grain, consequent on the export and home demand. The receipts of grain at the five principal lake ports for the five weeks ending September 28, amounted to 17,150,000 bushels, against 11,750,000 bushels for the same period of last year—showing an increase of 5,400,000 bushels, or 46 per cent. Considering that the increase of this predominant class of freight is 46 per cent., it would seem reasonable to expect that the earnings of the roads would show a gain of over 17½ per cent., and this want of correspondence between freights and earnings leads to the inference that the roads, on the average, are carrying for lower rates than last year; so that an increase in gross earnings of 17½ per cent. by no means justifies the expectation of a corresponding increase in the net earnings. Judging from the arrivals of grain at the lake ports for the expired portion of the current month, the earnings of the roads for October are not likely to show the large ratio of increase which obtained last month.

Declining the Presidency.

The Boston Advertiser thinks the example set by Gen. Butler, in declining to be considered a candidate for the Presidency, "as the purpose of the people becomes more clearly manifest and unmistakable," will be imitated by other "gentlemen who have entertained hopes in regard to the first office in the nation." But, says the Advertiser,—

"We doubt if many of them will manage to include in this document of abnegation, as General Butler does, a slur at the chief magistracy as a degraded office unworthy the acceptance of a man of independent thought. Certainly none of them will be apt to throw in also, as he does, an easily understood insinuation that the place held in so low estimation is likely to be 'degraded' further yet 'hereafter,' by the sort of man whose greater name compels others thus early to retire formally from the lists."

A NEW YORK JOURNAL announces that the Black Crook, which for more than four hundred nights, has withstood alike the cold of winter, the storms of spring and the heat of summer, has outlived the denunciations of a mistaken pulpit, a selfish press, and ignorant moralists, makes a new claim upon the public, and comes forward on Monday with startling and beautiful novelties." Had the writer been disposed to make out a strong case, he might have said that in one form or another the Black Crook had outlived all good influences since sin came into the world.

THE gifts made to thirty-two colleges—mostly in the Northern States, in 1866, amount to $8,041,000. Although the list is not complete, the figures afford signal proof of the growing interest in educational matters. Notwithstanding the heavy financial drains occasioned by the war, the people come forward liberally with their funds to support the institutions of learning, and relieve them from the oppressive pecuniary burdens under which many of them have long been laboring.

POLITICAL.

GOV. BROWNLOW wrote a characteristic letter to the Cooper Institute meeting, and among other things said: I trust that the noble-hearted Republicans of New York are not going to fold their arms and let the world, the flesh and the devil (all included in the term Democracy) sweep the field as they seem to have done in Ohio and Pennsylvania. Send a delegation of lukewarm radicals down here, and we will show them what live, earnest work is, such as has given us 52,000 majority in our recent canvass.

The Philadelphia Bulletin says: "There was probably four hundred Republicans in this city who recognized the claims of Judge Ludlow to a re-election, who were too stupid to distinguish between the cases of Judge Ludlow and Judge Sharswood, and who voted for the latter gentleman, simply because he was a Judge, and they had a vague idea that therefore he was to be re-elected to something for some reason they did not exactly know what. Judge Ludlow thus carried Judge Sharswood on his own shoulders, for which it is hoped the latter will be duly grateful. It is not complimentary to the intelligence of the four hundred brilliant Republicans who gave the State to the Democrats by their stupidity; but it is satisfactory to know that their number was so small as not to make their conduct any reflection upon the intelligence of the Republican party at large."

The Nation, a journal of opinion and ideas of the Republican sort, and a weekly of much ability, speaking of the election says: "It has, however, come round to the doctrine which the Nation has long maintained, that judicious 'scratching' of the names of unworthy candidates is not simply a sacrifice to abstract right, but the best service which can be rendered to the party in the long run." The Nation perpetrates a bit of practical sense thus: "What is the use of risking even the appearance of an adverse verdict in the controversy between Congress and Mr. Johnson by raising a point in each State which, for the present, has no practical importance? The work of reconstruction is going on, and will go on no matter what course any Northern State may adopt with regard to negro suffrage. Why then do anything likely to retard it? Why not, in short, settle this whole question of impartial suffrage at the North either by a constitutional amendment or a general law, whichever be deemed most advisable? The cause has certainly not been helped by the isolated attempts 'to set a good example' which have been made in Ohio and Connecticut."

The Nation deals Mr. Chase a heavy blow, thus: "A Judge of the Supreme Court who means to run for the Presidency is bound by every consideration to come down off the bench, and take off his gown, before he takes his place either openly or covertly in the arena. We confess we are in favor of having some post in the service of the United States in which a man's sole business will be to do his duty, and his sole reward the approval of his countrymen and of his own conscience."

American Journal of Horticulture and Florist's Companion.

Of the numerous publications of a similar character, we know of none that will rank with this, either as to the manner it is published or edited. Its typography is perfectly unexceptionable and an appropriate casket for the literary excellence by which the articles of the editor and contributors are usually marked, while the illustrations which adorn its pages are in keeping with the other points of excellence. It is published in Boston, by Tilton & Co., for three dollars a year. Considering that this magazine contains nearly or quite double the quantity of reading matter—to say nothing of the quality—of any other similar publication, the cost to the subscriber is exceedingly low.

A Languishing Enterprise

The Philadelphia and Southern Mail Steamship Company are making another effort to obtain subscription to its capital stock, which was originally placed at $1,000,000, to which, notwithstanding the repeated efforts, only $661,000 was subscribed. The expense attending the enterprise has been $679,000, besides the loss of one of the best steamers, partly insured. In consequence of this disaster the boats to Charleston have been withdrawn. The company last fall undertook to obtain a reserve fund of $100,000, but secured only $17,000, when the attempt was relinquished till the fall trade should set in. The subscription book is being passed now, and notice is given that subscription to one share even ($250) "will not come amiss."

THE New York Central and some other roads have uniformed their conductors and certain other employees, for which they are receiving many thanks from the public. The traveling public know from ample experience how important it is that those to whom they must look for information and safe conduct, should be easily distinguishable. It is hardly to be doubted that the leading roads generally, will adopt the "uniform" system.

ANOTHER Japanese troupe—the fourth—have arrived in San Francisco. They are called the Hi-Yah-Tah-Kee troupe, after a leader of that name, who, being a millionaire, and entitled to carry two swords and inflict the death penalty instanter, puts on more airs than an Emperor. They number thirty-one, and have nine females, some of them passably good-looking, with them. There are two little boys in the troupe who are not more than half the size of "Little All-Right," and they not only do all that he does and more, but absolutely accomplish the tub and barrel feat as well as the grown up men of the first troupes did. They had sixty tons of baggage when they landed, and their visit to America has cost a fabulous sum. Their feats are really wonderful to the last degree, but coming so soon after the others, they have not done half so well as they expected, and the old man is so disgusted that he threatens to throw up his engagement and return with his company to Japan without visiting the Eastern States or Europe.

MR. HURLBURT writes to the World a vivid description of the financial panic in Paris. He says: "Since that memorable day in April, 1864, when the Assyrian Chase came down upon Wall street like the wolf on the fold, I have seen no such financial panic as has raged, not only from the Rue Vivienne to the Passage de l'Opera, but even into the remotest parts of Passy and of the Bois de Bologne. A fall of 20 francs a day in the shares of the Credit Foncier being taken as an average, you may imagine what a vast horde of "lame ducks" must have been quacking apocalyptic woe over the share list of Parisian finance. Pale-faced persons, staring blankly with set eyes out of faultless cabs, have been visible in all directions careering with resultless energy in quest of utterly unprocurable advances."

IN Virginia City, a poor widow, in overhauling an old vest of her husband, who had recently died, found a dusty paper in the pocket, which, upon examination, proved to be the deed of three feet of the Savage claim. The Secretary of the company informed her it was genuine, and that $1,800 in dividends were due on it. She took the money, sold the dirty paper for $14,000, and came to her home and friends in the East.

Every story has a moral, and the moral of this is supposed to be, that wives, when their husbands die, should examine the vest-pockets.

THE Democrats of Massachusetts entertain great expectations concerning the ensuing election in that State. The Boston Post embodies them in this form: "The blood of the people of the State is up, and it may be expected with reason that the Conservative vote this fall, on the general ticket and for members of the Legislature, will change things about greatly. If persistent and energetic exertions are made up to election day, a result is sure to be reached that will surprise the men who consider the Commonwealth a sort of plantation, with its citizens as their slaves."

ITEMS BY JENKINS.

One of the belles of Baltimore, Miss Riggs, will be married next week to Mr. Lawrence, of New York. Great preparations are in progress for the wedding, and it is expected to be one of the grandest affairs of the season.

The bridal toilette of Miss Fanny Mott, granddaughter of Dr. Valentine Mott and niece of M. Blacque, the Turkish Minister, is described as a handsome white corded silk, trimmed round the bottom of the skirt with three bias folds of white satin. The waist was made high, with long sleeves, and a sash with long ends, trimmed with white silk fringe, was fastened behind. The veil was exquisite point lace; ornaments of diamonds. Her hair was arranged high, and was dressed with orange blossoms, which hung on one side of the chignon nearly to the waist.

The daughter of Mme. Ristori wears as a walking suit a dress of black and white striped silk, trimmed handsomely, and charming tulle bonnet. She attracts a great deal of attention on the street.

August Belmont and family have returned to New York from their villa at Newport, and Mrs. Belmont and her sister are to be seen daily riding on the avenue, elegantly attired in the latest Parisian fashions.

The popular preacher at the church the other evening said men were but mere atoms. A sizable individual weighing about three hundred sat directly in front of the pulpit, the picture of amazement and distrust. The mistake of the latter was in descending from men to man. Man in one pair of shoes is not mankind universal.

Bridge Over the Ohio.

The bridge over the Ohio at Louisville is progressing expeditiously, under the eye of Mr. J. C. Vaughn, the engineer in charge. Twenty of the twenty-four piers have been commenced. Eleven of them have reached a height of about fifteen feet above low water level, which, it is thought, will enable the masons to work without serious interruption during the season of high water. Coffer dams have been put in for four of the piers, between the first and twentieth, and the foundations will be erected forthwith. The latter pier is located on the falls, between Corn Island and the Indiana shore. It is approached by a section of railway laid upon trestle-work, and connecting with the railroad first laid down from the head of the island to the central pier. All of the piers and abutments will soon have been raised sufficiently high to avoid a suspension of the work in the winter.

A New York letter writer, speaking of Mrs. Lincoln, says: A great many people are under the impression that "Mrs. Clark" is a proud woman, but that must be a mistake. She has authorized Mr. Brady to solicit subscriptions for her, just as forlorn widows and aged persons in reduced circumstances often do, and this, I am sure, should silence the slander that she is proud. It is not the custom of proud people, who are pretty well off, to solicit aid from their neighbors, so let us hear no more about "Mrs. Clarke" carrying her head too high. And if you want proof that she is a modest, retiring woman, who would not, on any account, thrust herself before the public, I have only to refer you to the fact that she positively refused an offer of $500 for an inside history of the White House, to be only partly written by herself. Let the tongue of calumny be silent, then, until it can find a fitter subject than the lady whose troubles have drawn bitter tears from the eyes of the country.

But larger, by hundreds multiplied into millions, than the doomed band who rode to swift destruction in Tennyson's poem, is the great cavalcade of unhappy beings who are riding into misery, worse than death, bugging that fearful disease FEVER AND AGUE, when by the use of

MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS

They might, each one, be forever relieved from it, and their physical organization become thoroughly improved by means of a purified blood and healthy condition of the stomach. The legitimate result of using

Mishler's Celebrated Herb Bitters,

Is to ward off Fever and Ague when it is likely to make its appearance, and to effect a radical cure in cases where it has already gained a foothold. It makes no difference how long the victim of this disease has suffered from it, nor how violent the disease itself may be, we are prepared to furnish indubitable evidence that

Mishler's Celebrated Herb Bitters

Will cure it. It is inevitable from the very nature of the medicine; hence there is no longer any need of suffering. Send to your nearest Druggist for these invaluable Bitters, they all sell them.

GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

...rty years ago a chancery suit involving the ... of dower was commenced in Albany, and ...s just been decided. All the original par... to the suit are dead, and the entire value of ...roperty in dispute has been swallowed up ...osts.

...e experiment of steam passenger coaches ...e streets of Lyons, France, has been un...essful. About sixty of the prominent citi... of the place, accompanied by the officials ...he neighborhood, took passage in two-story ...ches. The engine pulled well on level ...nd or on a down grade, and turned around ...ers very nicely. It refused to pull up hill, ...ever, and the train ran away with it. A ...e more science and the thing may be made ...ork.

...here is much talk in New York fashionable ...les in regard to an event which is to come ... during the month of December, which ...mises to create a great sensation. It is in...ded to give a grand party at the house of a ...l-known citizen, a member of the American ...key Club, at which all the dances will be in ...tume, marking various epochs from the ...lfth to the present century. We learn that ...ers have been sent to Paris for some of the ...tume.

...f the following is genuine, it is a blessing in ... shape of a recipe to cure the felon: As ...n as the part begins to swell, wrap the part ...ected with a cloth thoroughly saturated with ...cture of lobelia, and the felon is dead. An ... physician says he knows it to have cured ...res of cases, and it never fails if applied in ...ason.

...ord Brougham gives it as his opinion, in ...e of his learned papers contributed to the ...blications of the Society for the Diffusion of ...eful Knowledge, that the child receives its ...changeable "bent" of character before its ...h year. If this be so, how important are ...me influences.

In New York last spring it was thought that ...ast amount of building would be done this ...ar. The marked decline in the price of ma...ials induced capitalists to turn their atten...on to the erection of houses, under the im...ession that the cost of building would fully ...stify such a course. Accordingly the archi...ts had more than they could do for a time in ...eparing plans for tenant houses, and the ...ilding Bureau was overwhelmed with work ... examining and passing upon such plans. ...t when the builders came to make their esti...ates the capitalists found that the cost was ...r in excess of what they supposed, and fully ...ro-thirds of all the building projects were ...ereupon suspended, to await a more favora...e time, which has not yet arrived.

A company in Baltimore has permission to ...nstruct a system of local telegraph not to go ...tside of the city limits. It is to reach every ...rt of Baltimore, and if the charges are low ...ough it will pay.

Near Sherman, Texas, recently, Mrs. Beatty, ... widow lady, met her death in a most singular ...anner. She was in the act of getting on a ...orse, when a common sewing-needle, which ...uck in her dress, caught in the saddle and ...as driven in her body near the breast, slightly ...ercing her heart. She lived only about half ... hour.

A description of Longfellow, the poet, says: ...s aspect is that of a bard in the full affluence ... his years and the full wealth of his genius. ...is silvered hair is long and wavy. His beard ...ows white and thick beneath his chin, look...g more like a deep lace ruff than anything ...se. His voice is melodious as an organ, and ...is features, handsome as ever, have been ...uched with new lines by the action of thought ...nd sorrow. His manners are very beautiful to ...l persons, and he carries about him that inde...ribable atmosphere that marks the perfectly ...ultured gentleman.

Elias Howe, the rich inventor of the sewing-...achine, is said to have been very penurious ...nd fond of money for its own sake. His death ...as an unexpected one, at a time when he was ... the fullest enjoyment of his riches.

PERSONAL.

—Judge Buckner, who lately committed sui...ide in Kentucky, left, as an apology for the ...ct, an extraordinary and plausible letter, ...herein he gave his reasons. He wrote: "I have ...o country, no family, no home, no money, no ...ope, no health. I am old and feeble, almost a ...tranger to my kindred. If I had the physical ...trength requisite to maintain myself, I might ...esire to live; but my spirits have been so bro...en down that I could do nothing useful. I ...hould, if I lived longer, be a burden upon my ...riends and relatives. My vital powers are ...ompletely sapped. This has been becoming ...ore evident every year since the agonizing ...train upon my constitution, caused by the ...eath of my poor little wife—Jane—and after...ards by the loss of the liberties of my coun...ry." And much more of the same sort.

—Wm. H. Allen, LL.D., has been elected ...resident of Girard College, Philadelphia, a ...osition which he formerly held for several ...ears.

—A lady in writing to the Chicago Tribune, ...eprecating the severity of the press towards ...Mrs. Lincoln, says that she is entitled to the ...ndulgence recently and universally exhibited ...oward the Empress Carlotta. The writer says: ..."Many who have known Mrs. Lincoln for ...ears have for a long time unhesitatingly af...rmed that her mind was wrecked, and that an ...nsane asylum must eventually be her home. ...The evidences of her insanity, in a thousand ...ways, are not wanting."

—Charles Kean and his wife actually menace ...he United States with another visit. We hope ...hey won't, for it is high time they made ar...rangements for their funeral, and quitted the ...stage they long ago ceased to adorn. They ...have been dramatically dead for a quarter of a ...century, and don't know it, poor creatures!

—Kossuth says that during the Italian war, ...when he waited on Napoleon III., at Villa ...Franca, he was told some one else was before ...him in the ante-room; but he himself, he says, ...was first admitted. The other man was the ...King of Italy.

—An unappreciated genius—Thomas Clever...ty, as he calls himself—puts forward a claim, ...in London, that he wrote some of the best parts ...of Campbell's "Pleasures of Hope."

—Senator Wilson is said to have declared that he would not vote for caucus nominees in the town of his residence, Natick, if they were in favor of liquor license. This is pretty high authority for independence of caucus decisions and dictates.

—Rev. Mr. Spurgeon, since his return from visiting the Continent, has been so severely attacked with rheumatism as to be obliged to suspend his labors for several months.

—Ten Broeck, the American turfman in England, has sold out and is coming to this country. Although for several years his success was great, of late he has been unlucky, and we infer he has come out poor. The English papers bear testimony that he has ever acted the "perfect gentleman," and express the hope that he will redeem the half-promise to return again.

—George Washington's watch has turned up in Tennessee. It is in the hands of ex-rebel General Bushrod Johnson, who got it from Major Polk, of Maury county, Tennessee, who procured it from a Union soldier, who "found" it somewhere near Washington. The watch, which is a quaint old bull's eye timepiece, will be forwarded to General Robert E. Lee.

A Prize with Every Ticket.

PROSPECTUS.

A number of the leading Bankers and Merchants of New York, in consideration of the great success which has attended many of the Charitable Presentation Entertainments of the day, have formed themselves into a company, with the view of inaugurating an enterprise which, while it shall return them a fair profit, shall offer greater advantages to ticket-purchasers than any yet presented; and which, being conducted upon a perfectly legitimate and business basis, shall be free from those objectionable features which have characterized many of these enterprises.

To this end they have consigned the sale of tickets, and the registering of the same, to Clark, Webster & Co., Bankers and Managers, No. 62 Broadway, New York, who will keep the records in their custody until the day of the Grand Presentation Entertainment, when they will be handed over to a committee selected by the audience to make an impartial distribution of presents

A reference to the number of presents and the general plan of distribution, given below, will convince even the most skeptical of the great advantages which will accrue to all who participate in the enterprise; and the Commercial and Financial standing of the Company, and the Managers and Bankers thereof, will, they hope, prove a sufficient guaranty of the fairness and impartiality with which everything in connection with the scheme will be conducted, and that the interests of ticket-holders will be most strictly watched over and guarded. In fact, it is the desire of the Managers to conduct every transaction for the mutual benefit of whoever shall purchase a ticket, and scrupulously to avoid any and everything which could in the slightest degree diminish the profits which are likely to accrue to all who invest.

THE BANKERS' AND MERCHANTS' FIRST GRAND CONCERT was given at Irving Hall, July 4th. The Second Grand Concert was given August 24th, both of them proving a grand success. The mammoth hall was filled with the most respectable citizens of New York. The audience appointed a committee of nine of the leading Bankers and Merchants to examine the register of tickets and satisfy themselves of the correctness of the registration before making the grand distribution of prizes on the 24th of October.

Important to Parties Desiring Tickets.

1st. There are but few remaining unsold. Those wishing to be supplied with ticets must order at once.
2d. The distribution of prizes will positively take place on the 24th of October, 1867.
3d. As the books will be closed immediately on the sale of the last ticket, for the purpose of the registration being examined by the Committee, it is important that we should receive orders at the very earliest moment.

Self Tempering Steam Power
BRICK MACHINE,
MANUFACTURED BY THE
PITTSBURGH BRICK MACHINE
AND
BRICK MANUFACTURING CO.
This Machine takes the clay direct from the bank, (without the preparation, by soaking, necessary for "soft mud" machines,) and tempers it thoroughly, pressing, in steel moulds, brick still enough to be packed up eight high in the yard as made. For cutting with the trowel, bearing hard usage, and making a strong, true wall, there are no better brick known. The cost of making them by this machine is from 95 cents to $1 10 per 1,000, according to the rates of wages. This we guarantee. The machine is built entirely of iron and steel; and in the best style for strength and permanent use in working clay. Apply for circulars, giving full information, at the office,

CITY MATTERS.

THE PLUM CREEK CHURCH DIFFICULTY.

A Singular Proceeding.

The Death of Young King.

Dissatisfaction With the Inquest.

Appeal to the Courts, Etc., Etc.

Reference has already been made in the COMMERCIAL to the difficulty which recently sprung up in the Old School Presbyterian Church, of Plum Creek, and which had unfortunately led indirectly to the death of J. S. King, a young and respected citizen of the neighborhood. As has already been stated, King was killed by the falling of a wall, in tearing down the old church building, and that our readers may understand the circumstances we append below a history of the difficulty.

Plum Creek congregation was organized about thirty years ago, and the church building was located about two miles east of New Texas. The present pastor is Rev. J. D. Moorhead, and the congregation numbers about one hundred and thirty members. The great majority of the congregation reside west of the present site, and for some time past a proposition has been on foot to remove the church to New Texas, where a fine parsonage is now in course of erection, and where the Trustees own a very eligible site for a building. This removal has been stoutly resisted by the minority residing in and about the present location, and hence the difficulty. New Texas is claimed to be about the center of the congregation, as respects their places of abode. When the present pastor was called, a parsonage was promised him, and a meeting was called in the spring of 1866 to authorize its erection. The "old location party," knowing that they were largely in the minority, seemed determined to oppose any movement looking to a removal of the building, and refused to do anything towards the erection of the parsonage until the location was settled. The majority desired to let the location alone until the parsonage was finished. The erection of the parsonage was finally authorized unanimously, and a meeting called to determine the location of the church. The vote stood—fifty-four in favor of New Texas, and forty-seven in favor of the old location. The number in favor of removal has largely increased since that meeting. The "old location" party then refused to subscribe to the parsonage unless the location was yielded to them. In this way nothing was accomplished for a year. The affair began to assume a disagreeable aspect, and the Presbytery of Saltsburg was appealed to in hopes that the difficulty might be settled. A committee was appointed, consisting of Messrs. F. Orr and D. J. Irwin, to visit the church, and after doing so, reported as follows:

"That the congregation of Plum Creek should immediately repair the old church so as to make it comfortable and respectable, and also immediately proceed to build the parsonage on their new lot at New Texas, considering that the faith and honor of the congregation, in view of the implied pledge given to their pastor, demand this."

The above was accompanied with an explanation, that it was intended as a compromise between the parties, and not designed to authorize either party to proceed with the erection of a new church building, and the amount to be expended in repairs was not to exceed eight hundred or one thousand dollars. This report was approved by Presbytery.

The New Texas party offered to take subscriptions for both objects together, and expend one-fourth on the church repairs and three-fourths on the parsonage. The other party would not hear to less than fifteen hundred dollars for the church, and that without saying anything about the parsonage. The Trustees, Alexander McJunkin, S. A. McClung, Wm. Meskimen, Jas. McJunkin, James Gray and S. P. Coon (all of whom are with the New Texas party except Mr. James McJunkin) then proceeded to carry out the old resolution, and the New Texas party raised money for the parsonage and have the same nearly completed. The minority attempted to restrain the majority, by injunction, but failed, and, getting their "Scotch-Irish" up, determined to build another church at the old place, at all hazards. They appointed a building committee, raised a fund of some six thousand dollars, and on Sabbath, October 6th, on their own authority, gave their pastor leave of absence. A congregational meeting was called on the same day, for October 21st, the charter requiring two weeks' notice. On Sabbath, October 13th, the Trustees learned that the minority intended to begin work next morning, before daylight, tearing down the old building. The church was secretly fastened on Sabbath evening.

THE OLD CHURCH DEMOLISHED.

The minority had quietly made arrangements with Messrs. Reed & Niblock, contractors, of this city, to be on hands at an early hour Monday morning, to tear down the old church. It is alleged that a night excursion was planned and executed, and the party breakfasted at the house of one of the leaders of the minority at four o'clock in the morning. The "peep o' day boys" were promptly on hand, and forcing an entrance into the building, began with axes, saws and other implements, to raze the sacred walls. The Trustees, as soon as they could do so, entered suit against the parties for forcible entry and detainer. They all gave bail to answer, but proceeded with the work as soon as they were at liberty.

THE DEATH OF KING.

On Tuesday morning the work of demolition was renewed, and while the last wall was being undermined it fell suddenly, burying young King beneath the mass of brick, and killing him instantly. The affair cast a gloom over the community, and caused great excitement. Justice James Patterson held an inquest, and Messrs. Joseph Woods, James McJankin, Wm. Martin, Josiah Davidson and Robert Niblock were sworn as witnesses. The substance of the testimony was, that Josiah Davidson and King were undermining the last wall, the other three being down—that this wall was undermined the same as the others, excepting that a piece of heavy timber lay against the top of the wall, from the inside, and had the effect to press it outward. When the men got within about five feet of meeting each other, as they proceeded with the undermining, Davidson saw the wall start and ran, hallooing to King at the same time. The former escaped with slight injury, but the latter was caught and crushed to death. The jury found a verdict of accidental death.

DISSATISFACTION WITH THE INQUEST.

After the deceased was buried, there was considerable talk over the affair, and some dissatisfaction expressed as to the manner in which the inquest had been held. It was even alleged that the inquest was illegal, as the Coroner had not been notified. Some of the minority foolishly attributed the death of the young man to the action of the Trustees, in interfering with the work, and necessitating haste in its execution! On the other hand some of the majority asserted that the jury had acted illegally in not hearing testimony as to the carelessness of the parties doing the work, and putting the blame where it properly belonged. It was determined to call Coroner Clawson, and have his opinion as to the proceeding. He was accordingly notified, and proceeded to New Texas yesterday. He examined the papers and found them correct, but stated that the jury had no right to exclude testimony offered to show whether proper care had been used by those having the work in charge. It was determined, however, not to open up the investigation.

A CONGREGATIONAL MEETING.

Yesterday afternoon at two o'clock, a meeting of the congregation was held at the old church, in the open air, to consider what should be done with those who had set the will of the congregation at defiance.

Justice Patterson was called to the chair, and S. A. McClung was chosen Secretary. The object of the meeting having been stated, the Secretary read extracts from previous meetings, and also the action of Presbytery, as noticed above.

Mr. J. M. Carpenter presented a protest on behalf of the minority, setting forth their grievances, and protesting against any action on the part of this meeting that would in any way interfere with or retard the "repairs" now making. This paper was signed by Wm. Martin, J. Woods, Samuel Schreiner, J. Murray Carpenter, James McJunkin, Elias B. Davidson and Hugh Davidson. It was accepted and ordered to be placed on the minutes without answer.

Mr. David Coon then offered the following, which was unanimously adopted, seventy-one voting:

WHEREAS, Certain disorderly persons, some of them claiming membership in Plum Creek Church, have taken it upon themselves to demolish the building belonging to the congregation, contrary to the distinct warning of the trustees, the lawful conservators of said property; therefore,

Resolved, That we condemn in an unqualified manner, the action of these persons as a violation of law, and wholly contrary to the will of this congregation.

Resolved, That we commend the action of the Trustees in attempting to prevent the destruction of this property, and enjoin it upon them to use all lawful endeavors to bring the perpetrators of this outrage to speedy justice.

Resolved, That in the name of the congregation we forbid the erection of another church building on the property belonging to said congregation, until its location is properly determined, and instruct the Trustees to see to the strict observance of this order.

Another resolution was unanimously passed, endorsing the action of the Trustees with respect to the building of the parsonage, after which the meeting adjourned.

The "minority" took no part in the above meeting, except to enter their protest. The workmen employed by them were busily engaged clearing away the brick and other debris, preparatory to rebuilding, under the pretense of "repairing." As the matter is now in the hands of counsel, for settlement before the courts, we forbear making any comments.

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY.—An attempt was made on Saturday night to rob the brewery of John Therker, situated in the Eighth ward. The thief had opened the cellar door, and had a barrel of ale nearly rolled out when he was discovered by a son of the proprietor. The young man gave an alarm, which brought to his assistance a couple of officers, but by the time they has arrived the thief had flown and could not be found.

THROUGH the wide-spread and extensive circulation of the COMMERCIAL, Dr. Aborn has secured patients residing from one hundred to two hundred miles from Pittsburgh, some of whom be treats by letter, but the majority at his rooms, 134 Smithfield street.

The Leader Nine will play a match game with the Pickwick Base Ball Club, at Oakland, this afternoon, at two o'clock. All lovers of our national game should attend.

School Books—Thanks.

At a meeting of the Sabbath School of the Presbyterian Church, at McClellandtown, Fayette county, October 13, 1867, the following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, Through Mr. D. B. Riffle, of this place; Messrs. Arbuthnot, Shannon & Co., W. Pickersgill & Co., Logan, Gregg & Co., John Gill & Sons, R. H. Palmer, Reymer & Brothers, Newcomb, Gor & Co., merchants of Pittsburgh, made the very liberal donation of two hundred and six volumes of excellent reading to the library of this school, which was so recently consumed by fire with our church; Therefore,

Resolved, 1. That we gratefully appreciate this truly generous and opportune contribution in the day of our affliction and necessity. Our earnest prayer is that the benevolent donors may receive the greater blessing promised to those who "give."

Resolved, 2. That it will be gratifying to those kind friends to learn, as it is pleasing to us to be able to say that our Sabbath School has been by God's blessing, greatly enlarged and prospered, and to this, our new library has con ributed its full share.

H. J. GILMORE, Superintendent.
GEO. PORTER, Assistant.
JAS. A. WELTNER, Librarian, &c.

PERSONAL.—R. C. Brown, Esq., editor and proprietor of the Morgan County, O., Herald, published at McConnellsville, is in the city on business connected with his establishment. The Herald is an influential newspaper, devoted politically to the support of Republican principles, and enjoys an extensive circulation throughout the Muskingum Valley. Our business men already receive a fair share of the trade of the Muskingum Valley, and there is no reason why they should not aim to monopolize it, which liberal advertising in the Herald, at McConnellsville, would materially help to accomplish. Those merchants who fail to see Mr. Brown, may leave advertising favors for the Herald with John Croft & Co., 139 Fourth street.

NEPTUNE FIRE COMPANY.—This excellent fire organization commenced yesterday to erect a stable in the rear of their engine house, on Seventh street, for the accommodation of their horses, the Committee on Fire Engines, under the instructions of Councils, having leased a lot for that purpose. The members of the company are making the necessary excavations, and the building will be finished and ready for occupancy in a few days. While the improvement is in progress, it might be well for the committee to take some measures towards having the cellar drained and placed in a healthy condition.

RARE CHANCE FOR MEN OF SMALL CAPITAL.—Col. J. W. Beazell offers for sale, State County and city rights of a very valuable patent, which in its use is adapted to every man of business. Having examined it we can say there is no surer or more delightful way to realize a competency than to possess the right for a good county or large city. Rights for States have been sold at a large figure, although Col. Beazell is selling county and city rights on reasonable terms. See wanted column.

CHURCH IMPROVEMENT.—During the recent vacation in the First United Presbyterian Church, on Seventh street, of which Rev. W. J. Reid is pastor, the church has been greatly improved in appearance. It has been thoroughly renovated, has been newly painted and frescoed, and now presents as fine an appearance as any similar edifice in either city. The church has been reopened, and services are held as usual.

PARTON ON PITTSBURGH.—The January number of the Atlantic Monthly will contain an article on Pittsburgh, by James Parton, whose sketches of Chicago, Cincinnati and other cities have occasioned much remark. Had the suburbs all agreed to consolidation, Mr. Parton would have had material to give Pittsburgh its proper position among the great cities. The article will be looked for with interest.

SALE OF A FIRE ENGINE.—The Duquesne Fire Company, being anxious to dispose of the steamer now in use, in order to secure one with all the modern improvements, have received an offer from the authorities of Nilestown, Ohio, who propose to give $2 650 for it. The Company will decide in a few days whether they accept the proposition.

William Semple's Great Dry Goods Emporium in Allegheny.

We like to inspect a first-class mercantile establishment, and it is no wonder, therefore, that we passed a delightful hour yesterday forenoon at the extensive and universally popular dry goods house of Mr. William Semple, Nos. 180 and 182 Federal street, Allegheny. The business of this firm is conducted systematically, under Mr. Semple's personal supervision, and it is no disparagement to others for us to say that he is the most persistently industrious, sagacious and practical dry goods merchant we ever met. He knows every detail of his business, and he gives to his host of customers the full benefit of his experience. They always share with him the decided advantages derived from his superior facilities for buying goods at the East, and his familiarity with their requirements invariably secures to them the very article that they want at less cost and less delay than other houses can possibly insure to their buyers. Mr. Semple sells his goods at the very lowest possible price that the condition of the market will allow, and it is really surprising in times like the present with a depressed money market that fabrics of such a desirable character as we saw in his spacious salesroom can be sold at the trifling sum he asks for them. This remark applies to his entire stock, which is one of the heaviest that can be found in Western Pennsylvania, and to which Mr. Semple is daily adding large invoices to meet the demands of his patrons, and we must declare it, that a finer variety of goods we have rarely seen in any of the great Eastern cities. We cannot attempt to enumerate everything that Mr. Semple keeps constantly on hand, but in order to afford the reader an idea of the magnitude of the stock, will merely say that among other goods which we saw were the following, and we mention them for the reason that they are all peculiarly adapted to the present season of the year: Prints, muslins, checks, tickings, ginghams, crash, table linen, cassimeres, satinets, brown jeans, blue jeans, canton flannels, plain flannels, heavy plaid flannels, Rob Roy flannels, opera flannels, sacking flannels, waterproof cloth, delains, alpacas, French merinos, poplin plaids and stripes, ladies' shawls, misses' shawls, fancy knit shawls, Sontags, hoods, ladies' underclothing, children's underclothing, balmoral and hoop skirts, brown blankets, gray blankets, country blankets, quilts, coverlets, men's undershirts and drawers, batting, woolen yarn, hats, ribbons and flowers, Irish linen, handkerchiefs, gloves, suspenders, hosiery, notions, &c., and let the reader bear it in mind that all these fabrics are sold by the yard, piece or package, in quantities to suit. Since Mr. Semple improved his place of business, his patrons have had one of the best stores that can be found in this county, in which to buy to an advantage such goods as they need. We mean by that, that every person when out on a "shopping excursion," prefers to select from a large assortment, so nicely classified that no unnecessary delay is involved in finding the precise article required. Then a good degree of light is always necessary in order that the grade of the fabric and its precise shade or color can be clearly seen. Now, these are matters which are of considerable importance, as experienced persons will admit, and we congratulate Mr. Semple upon having his goods now admirably arranged in both his wholesale and retail departments, and also upon the constantly uninterrupted streams of light which he has secured by the remodling and enlargement of his buildings. Wholesale buyers can see at a glance, from the variety of goods we have mentioned above, that Mr. Semple is able to fill their orders from a full line of Dry Goods, Notions, etc. The amount of his annual sales is conclusive proof to our mind that his trade must extend far and wide and that he has earned the distinction he enjoys as a representative leading merchant in our midst. Dealers can depend upon making the best bargains now offered at his establishment. There is one other point we nearly omitted to mention, and that is the polite attentions of the experienced employees of this house. Whatever they represent concerning the quality and price of goods may be relied upon as fact, and from frequent personal observation we are prepared to say that with them it is never considered a trouble to show goods to visitors.

Sudden Relief from a Hopeless Condition.

Mr. Ada a Kauf, a resident of South Pittsburgh, was for two years painfully afflicted with a disease of the throat and lungs, which had reduced him in flesh and strength. His cough and pain in the chest was of a most alarming nature. In three weeks, under the skillful treatment of Dr. Aborn, of No. 134 Smithfield street, he was restored to the health and vigor of his youth.

Hearing Restored.

A present grand juryman says: I cheerfully certify that a year or two ago I was afflicted with a discharge from the ears which was soon followed by deafness. I was induced to apply to Dr. Aborn, of No. 134 Smithfield street, on the recommendation of one of his patients, and within the space of one month I have quite recovered. In the course of his treatment he neither resorted to cutting, probing nor any painful operation. It gives me great pleasure to say that he is a gentleman worthy of high consideration in his special branch of medical science.

Systems Run Down.

Persons often allow their systems to "run down," or rather run them down by over work, accompanied by a neglect of the proper means of invigoration. The result is what is called "GENERAL DEBILITY;" in other words, a failure and partial collapse of the physical forces, accompanied usually by great depression of spirits.

The best remedy in such cases is HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. Whether the state of exhaustion has been brought on by excessive physical labor, dissipation, anxiety of mind, exposure, or any other cause, the remedial effect of this great stomachic will be found equally prompt and certain. As a restorative, after severe sickness has prostrated the bodily and mental energies, it is pronounced by competent medical authorities, "THE BEST TONIC IN USE." If men were not foolishly careless about their health, and over confident in themselves, they would always, when engaged in any work that required great exertion, use corresponding means of sustaining their strength. For this purpose HOSTETTER'S BITTERS are invaluable. All toilers should use them as an invigorant.

For those constantly employed in in-door occupations, especially in crowded workshops, they may be reckoned as the very best safeguard of health. Where there is a predisposition to constipation, or a tendency to biliousness, they may be truly said to be a specific for which there is no substitute.

DIED:

CLARKE—At his residence in Oakland, near Pittsburgh, at 4 o'clock P. M., on Saturday, the 19th of October 1867, THOMAS S. CLARKE, in the sixty-seventh year of his age.

The funeral will proceed from Oakland to Allegheny Cemetery on TUESDAY MORNING next, at ten o'clock. Carriages will leave the corner of Seventh and Smithfield streets at half-past nine o'clock.

PHILLIPS—At West Chester, Pa., Saturday, the 19th inst., ARTHUR O., infant son of D. Clinch and F. E. Phillips, aged three months.

GREEN—On board the steamship Moses Taylor, on the Western coast of Lower California, September 18th, 1867, Capt. WM. CAMERON GREEN, First United States Infantry, in the twenty-third year of his age. His remains were interred on shore, eighteen miles above Cape San Lucas.

Capt. Green was born in Lewisburg, Pennsylvania, and was the only son of John A. Green, Esq. At the outbreak of the war he enlisted in the Union Army, and was a faithful, brave and intelligent soldier. For meritorious conduct he was promoted to a Brevet Captaincy in the Regular Army, fought under Gen. Grant before Vicksburg, and took part in all the engagements of that memorable campaign. For upwards of a year he was stationed in our city, and during his stay had gathered around him many warm friends. His intelligence, integrity, urbanity and soldierly devotion to duty, attracted all our citizens, and gave to him a position which any might envy. Recently he was detailed to conduct recruits to California, and after discharging that duty, on his way home, was stricken down with a fatal attack of congestion of the brain. In two days his sufferings terminated, and the "mortal put on immortality." Friends weep his early loss, but not without hope of meeting again "where the weary are at rest."

"Soldier rest, thy warfare o'er,
Dream of tented fields no more;
Sleep the sleep that knows no waking,
Night of toil or morn of breaking."

FINANCE AND TRADE.

MONDAY EVENING, Oct. 21, 1867.

There is not a changed feature in the local money market to-day. Discounts are very light, and it is almost out of the question to negotiate paper at any rates that an ordinary business can bear. There are obligations, however, that must be provided for, and hence steep rates are accepted and paid in order to bridge over the present pinch. The banks are taking care of their choice customers, whom they discriminate very closely, but the offerings we are informed in a very large proportion are renewals.

—More firmness is reported in Government securities, but there is scarcely any change to note. The quotations to Messrs. McVay & Co. and James T. Brady & Co. show the following prices:

Gold	143⅜
U. S. 6s 1881	111¾
5-20s, 1862	111¾

—The New York Financial Bulletin contains the following resume of the market for the past week:

The principal feature of the week has been the extreme tightness of the money market and the consequent difficulty in obtaining money on call and more particularly on discounts of commercial paper, the rates for first class names having reached as high as 12 per cent. on produce commission paper. The cause of this condition of the money market is still found in the continued demand for currency to move the grain crop of the west. Government securities have generally declined, affected by the lower prices abroad and also by the pressure of securities for sale by parties desiring to realize on them, and to some extent by the influence of the counterfeit Seven-Thirties. Of the latter the amount issued is estimated at about $200,000, and the Secretary has made a demand upon the parties from whom the notes were received at the Treasury, the amount taken in there being $79,000.

Stocks have been excited and irregular and have generally declined; in Erie there has been a regular break, occasioned by a speculative movement, and in the next week if the money market does not become decidedly easier it is quite probable that lower prices will be seen. Gold has fluctuated under the rumors of foreign complications.

In the corresponding week last year the money market had just begun to show an increased stringency occasioned by a demand for currency to move the Western and Southern crops.

Government securities advanced. Railroad stocks fluctuated widely under speculative action, and gold declined from 152 to 147.

We compare below the prices of leading stocks and securities at this date and the same time in 1866:

—In commercial circles trade has been very dull. Prices generally show a declining tendency, and the volume of business transacted is small for the season. Dry goods have been declining for cotton goods, and further concessions from holders may be expected. As a rule the condition of affairs has been unsatisfactory.

PITTSBURGH OIL TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, MONDAY, October 21, 1867.

BUSINESS.—The market yesterday exhibited more activity. Buyers were more disposed to operate. Former prices were well maintained. The Eastern markets were quoted as follows: New York—sales prime light straw to white 34c; standard white 34c; crude 20c ₰ gallon. Philadelphia—prime light straw to white not quoted; standard white 34½c; crude 21c ₰ gal on. Oil City dispatches report the market very dull and prices unsettled; private dispatches announced sales at $3 30@3 40 ₰ bbl. These were certainly low figures. The continued low water in the Allegheny cannot fail to have a depressing effect in the oil regions. In our own market the demand was restricted altogether to lots to meet the current wants of the market. The receipts were 597 bbls. The sales foot up 4,667 bbls as follows: 3,000 bbls Allegheny, bulk, sellers' option, November, 11½c ₰ gallon; 167 bbls on the spot, 13c, and 1,500 bbls bulk, at gravity, delivered in bulk boats at the works, the terms were not made public.

REFINED OIL.—There was a fair inquiry for this article. Sales were made extending to March, 1868. The rates of Saturday were firmly maintained. The sales in the aggregate reach 12,500 bbls, as follows: 2,500 bbls S W, Philadelphia, B O, as follows: 500 bbls November, 500 bbls December, 500 bbls January, 1868, 500 bbls February, and 500 bbls March, at 33½c ₰ gall n. Sales 1,000 bbls S W, Philadelphia, B O, October, 34c. Sales 1,000 bbls do, same description, November, B O, 35c. Sales 3,000 bbls S W, Philadelphia, B O as follows: 500 bbls October, 500 bbls November, 500 bbls December, 500 bbls January, 1868, 500 bbls February, and 500 bbls March, at 33½c each month. Sales 5,000 bbls S W, Philadelphia, B O, November, in 1,000 lots at 35c ₰ gallon.

Oil City Oil Market.

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Commercial.

OIL CITY, October 11, 1867.

The market for crude is moderately active to-day, but at lower prices, holder asking $3 50, delivered in Oil City. Market on creek $3 15@3 20. The weather is warm and clear. L.

HOPS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, MONDAY, October 21, 1867.

The hop market continues firm and steady. Since our last report the demand for consumption has increased considerably, owing to the purchase of the Lager Beer Brewers, who have just commenced buying their stock. We quote prices as at our last report, ranging from 65@70c per lb, for new choice to fancy.

The past week's business is reported by Mr. Emmet Wells, of New York city, as follows:

"We have to report a dull and drooping market. The stringency in the money market has tended to check operations, and dealers and speculators who have been paying extravagant cash prices for Wisconsin hops are very reluctant to sell to brewers on four or six months' credit, particularly to those whose paper they find it difficult to negotiate. Prices certainly are not as firm as last week, but as we hear of no concessions on the part of holders we continue our quotations without change. With a continuance of the present stagnation in the trade, however, a decline in prices is inevitable. In any event, should a decline take place, it will be more the result of a tight money market than anything else, as holders will not be apt to submit to any material concession unless forced to do so by the necessities of their pecuniary position. Exports for the week, to London, 12 bales; to Canada, 2 bales. Messrs. Elkins & Studdard, of Philadelphia, in their circular state that the proportion of inferior hops in New York State has induced those having good qualities to hold at higher figures than they can realize in the present condition of our markets. Hops from Wisconsin are just arriving. There will be as large a crop as we at first estimated, and the quality will be prime, except so far as the inexperience of growers and their want of facilities for picking and curing may have reduced the grade. The receipts are not yet sufficient to allow of any accumulation of stock, and we quote a steady demand at the following rates:

New York State, low and medium grades, new. 40@55c
Prime to choice qual., new ... 58@70c
Wisconsin, prime to choice qualities, new ... 60@70c
Old Hops ... 10@30c

FOREIGN MARKET.

London advices down to October 5th report that market dull and depressed, with scarcely any demand for their own hops. Prices were steadily declining, and showed a decline of 40s ₰ cwt from the commencement of the season. The majority of English growers had withdrawn their hops from sale, and consumers were gradually supplying their wants with foreign descriptions, freely obtaining at 39s ₰ cwt lower than their own growth. The Continental markets, with the exception of Bavaria, are reported on the decline. Fine Belgians were offered at £5 10s; German and French (fine) £6 6s, and fine Bavarians £7@£7 10s. The quantity on offer was very large.

Grape Crop of Kelly Island.

The Grape crop on the Islands, the Peninsula and the main land, says the Sandusky Register, is proving an excellent one in quantity, and the quality of the fruit has rarely been excelled. The amount now being brought to Sandusky from the Islands and Peninsula is immense. This (Monday) morning the steamer Grant brought over from the Peninsula 13 000 pounds. It is estimated that the amount of grapes brought here this season from the Peninsula vineyards alone, will reach 1,700 tons. The amount brought to Sandusky from the Islands and the main land will be much greater. From these facts, some notion can be formed of the extent of the grape interest about Sandusky.

PRODUCE AND GENERAL MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, MONDAY EVENING, October 21, 1867.

We have nothing new to report in regard to general trade. Business is remarkably inactive in all departments. Flour continues to maintain high rates, although there is a falling off in the demand. Grain, of all kinds, is in small receipt, and prices rule high. There is only a moderate trade doing in groceries and provisions.

The receipts of some of the leading articles of produce per river and rail, since our last, were as follows: Flour 1,222 bbls; apples 1,173 bbls; cheese 380 bxs; corn 471 sacks; wheat 987 sacks; barley 1,724 sacks; rye 208 sacks; oats 844 sacks and butter 21 packages.

We quote as follows, which are the wholesale store prices, unless otherwise noted:

LARD OIL—We quote No. 1 lard oil at $1 15 and No. 2 at 90c ₰ gallon.

BACON—Trade moderate and no change in prices reported. We quote S. C. hams at 21½c; plain hams 22c; sides 17@18c; shoulders 14½@14½c.

DRIED BEEF—We quote at 24c ₰ lb.

MESS PORK—We quote mess pork at $24 ₰ bbl.

LARD—Trade fair at 14½@15c ₰ lb. Sales of prime country lard reported at 15 ₰ lb on advance.

CHEESE—We note sales of Goshen at 18@19c ₰ lb; Sweitzer at 20c ₰ lb; Hamburg at 15@16c ₰lb, and factory at 16c ₰ lb.

BUTTER—Sales of fresh roll were made at 33@35c ₰ lb, and tub packed at 27c ₰ lb.

HAY—We note sales of 10 loads at $17 00@22 00 ₰ ton, from country wagons.

APPLES—Receipts large; sales reported of 25 bbls at $3 75; 50 bbls at $3 00@4 00; and one car-load, on the track, of 150 bbls, at $3 00 ₰ bbl.

GRAPES—We note sales of 30 boxes grapes at 8c ₰ lb.

EGGS—Market bare of eggs. Sales reported at 26@27c ₰ doz by the barrel.

POTATOES—Choice Peach Blows may be quoted at $1 00@1 10 ₰ bush. Sales reported of 20 bbls. Jersey sweets at $4 50; 50 bbls. by load, at $4 00, and 20 bbls. at $4 50 ₰ bbl.

ASHES—We quote soda ash at 5c; refined at 5½c, and pearls at 13c ₰ lb.

LEAD—Sales noted at 10½c ₰ lb.

ONIONS—Receipts small. Sales range at from $3 50@5 00 ₰ bbl as to quality.

SEED—Clover seed is held at $9 50@10 00 ₰ bushel, and timothy seed at $2 75@3 00 ₰ bushel. Receipts light and demand small.

BEANS—New choice beans are in demand at $4 00 ₰ bushel.

RYE—We note sales from first hands at $1 45 ₰ bushel.

BARLEY—The only sale we have reported is one car of spring and fall at $1 35 ₰ bush.

CORN—There is very little doing in corn. Stocks and receipts are light. By the car load we quote shelled at $1 28 ₰ bush.

OATS—Receipts light. Sales on the wharf reported at 65@68c ₰ bush. From store we quote at 68@70c ₰ bush.

WHEAT—Receipts very small. Red winter is in demand at the mills at $2 50 ₰ bush, and white wheat at $2 60 ₰ bush.

FLOUR—Demand moderate, without any particular change in prices, and only a small stock of choice brands in store. We quote winter wheat brands, from store, at $12 50@12 75, and spring brands at $10 75@11 50 ₰ barrel. The following are the Pearl Mill prices, the same as the City Mills, wholesale and retail, for standard flour:

	—Barrels.— Wholesale.	Retail.	—Sacks.— Wholesale. ₰ 100 lbs.	Retail. ₰ 50 lbs.

Sweepings	2 00

Sales also reported of 3 cars middling at $2 40 ₰ cwt, and 3 tons do at the same figure.

WOOL MARKETS.

NEW YORK.

The Economist says that the market continues dull, being in full sympathy with the dry goods market; but the best informed and most sagacious men, both manufacturers and dealers, both in goods and wool are looking for a reaction. Perhaps there never was a time when there was such a small stock of goods between the consumer and manufacturer, and rarely has there been a time when the people generally were so barely supplied with wearing apparel as at present. The retail dealers have been trying to work off their old stocks at old prices and have blocked the wheels of trade; this, however, cannot last much longer, as many, having closed out their old stocks, are now selling new goods at very reduced prices. This will compel others to close out their old stocks at low prices, and will create a demand, for just so soon as the consumer feels that prices are at the bottom they will be free purchasers.

It is also generally conceded that the amount of goods, taking the whole country through, is small; the trade was never healthier; it is like a man that has been sick, cleared from everything like disease, but weak; he must first be tottering along, then walk and then run, jump or walk at his pleasure.

Business prospects are much better than they were a year ago, and particularly those of woolens; these are being sold at very low prices, and the wool is sold at about 10 ₰ lb less than a year ago; this will make the ¾ yard allowance in the cost, less than it was a year ago. There has been in some less than it was a year ago. There has been in some [illegible] regular reduction; others have not made a reduction, but have made changes and other alterations in a manner which has reduced the cost of production to a considerable extent. There is, too, at the present time more machinery in operation than there was a year ago, and in the hands of manufacturers there is much more wool than a year ago; some factories have a good stock of wool, and few have enough to carry them through to next February. Foreign wool is going out of the country, and if the price of wool goes much lower, it will pay to send it to England. Scoured Mestizo and fine wools are worth in England from 56c to 58c, gold, or from 82c to 90c, our currency; while domestic fleeces are selling here at as low figures, with few exceptions, ranging in working as either, excepting the very best, and would answer many purposes much better. We do not think there is any occasion for wool to be sold lower than it has been, and so low that a better price might be obtained in Europe, if it had been sent to Europe.

It would be something remarkable strange if, in the very face of this remarkable state of things, it should be sent to England and the goods brought back and sold in our markets. It would not be at all strange if it should be found that it had been a case of wool to the same course. [illegible] The amount of domestic wool produced is small; and the amount of domestic woolen goods will be still less. The stock will be materially lessened until next shearing without the aid of foreign wool. It is much more probable that the factories will want for stock than for wool. Although trade has been drooping the past fortnight, and people have been somewhat alarmed and have dropped prices; yet, we are free to confess, we have seen no cause for it.

A good deal of attention is being paid to fine wool, but in a very quiet manner; there is no fear of the market; manufacturers are very wisely holding off, rather given to jockeying at the present day; so that it is not much given to to trade; but it makes little difference; it will be asked for and taken before long; and what is rather remarkable they are all looking to the wool. But there has been quite a number of firms who have but a small stock, which, one would think, ought to be at any rate; it [illegible] stow, and manufacturers know this well. Some would have capitalists enough to keep them going through the season, and they did so [illegible] begging for an offer and understanding [illegible] in the case, made offers accordingly and woolens are also scarce. There is a small stock of X wool, but as two-thirds of the machinery of the country are on the grade, a large supply is needed for either a large stock of pulled wool in the market for a large demand. Domestic combing is getting very scarce, and there is comparatively but little in the market.

The sales are about 200,000 lbs, ranging from 40@57c, for coarse heavy XX, including 30,000 lbs fleece at 42@55c; 20,000 lbs Michigan, 40@57c; 3,000 lbs Western, XX and above, on private terms; 20,000 lbs Western, XX and above, on private terms; 30,000 lbs Western, &c; 10,000 lbs Cape; 25,000 lbs California, 25@37c; 10,000 lbs pulled, private terms; 30,000 lbs Low Texas 22½@30c. 5,000 lbs all others 28c; 40,000 lbs Texas, 25@37c. Foreign wools are very quiet.

COAL TRADE.

PHILADELPHIA.

We notice no material change in the trade the past week further than there appears to be more activity in red ash and the smaller sizes of white ash coal. These command ready sale at an advance of about 25 cents per ton. The rest still continue dull. The supply of vessels is better than the previous week, and the early part of the past week, but not sufficient for the wants of the trade, and freights have an upward tendency. The shipping season for this year being short, freights are not likely to become lower, but in all probability will advance as the season draws to a close.

Prices of coal we quote as follows: Broad Top, $4 90 to $5 00; gas coal, $5 00.

For Eastern shipment, white ash steamer and broken, $4 25; egg and stove, $4 50. Locust Mountain broken and steamer, $4 50 to 4 75; egg and stove, $4 75; all stove, $4 85 to 5. Red ash egg and stove, $4 50@4 75; and Lykens Valley $5 25, as to quality, on board of vessel.

Portsmouth Iron Market.

Since our last report, says the Portsmouth, Ohio, Republican, of Saturday, 19th instant, the excitement of elections has somewhat quieted, and sales have transpired to our local mills to considerable amount, and two flatboats laden with 400 tons of pig iron have cleared this port. The receipts by rail have footed up 300 tons of pig iron. Prices have not advanced so far as we know. The two mills are running, although the old mill is having a wooden superstructure put around it. Our former quotations are still ruling figures.

Seeds in Philadelphia.

In Cloverseed there was rather more doing, during the past week; sales of 500 bushels at $9@9 25 ₰ bushel. Timothy has declined; 330 bushels sold at $2 50@2 60. Flaxseed has declined; we quote at $2 65@2 66.

THE RIVER AND MATTERS ALONG THE WHARF.—Business on the lower landing has undergone no improvement, the river being too low for navigable purposes. The boatmen are all waiting for the good time coming, but to which no date was fixed.

Above the bridge activity was the order of the day. The old, or Mail Line from this date will run two boats a day, the morning boat leaving at 8 A. M., the evening one at 5 P. M. The People's Line boats leave daily at 5 P. M.

The boats that left yesterday were loaded to their utmost capacity.

ENROLLMENT AND INSPECTION OF COAL BARGES—IMPORTANT TO THE OWNERS.—The following is an amendment offered by Captain J. W. Batchelor, as an amendment to section 19, of the proceedings of the Cincinnati Convention, having passed that body. If this bill should pass Congress and become a law, it will definitely settle this vexed question of enrolling coal barges:

SECTION 19. And be it further enacted, That upon application by the master or owner, the local inspectors shall, once in twelve months at least, carefully inspect the hulls, boilers and machinery, of each passenger and freight steamer and barge, belonging to their respective districts, provided such steamers and barges are in use; and they shall satisfy themselves that steamers and barges are in such condition that they may be used in navigation with safety to life and property, and that all the requirements of the law in regard to fires, boats, pumps, hose, life-preservers, and other things, are faithfully complied with, and that they have suitable pipes from the boilers to the hold, to carry steam for the extinguishment of fires in case of accident. Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be so considered as to apply to barges engaged exclusively in the transportation of coal.

RED RIVER is very low and steamboating troublesome.

THE Gray Eagle went into New Orleans last trip with 1,588 bales of cotton. The Magenta took in 1,307 bales the last trip she made.

THE Flicker had to lay up at Rosa plantation, on Red River, on account of the crew being sick. The clerk died on the 7th inst.

MISERLY.—The city of St. Paul charges wharfage against boats employed by the United States in improving the navigation of the Upper Mississippi.—St. Louis Republican.

JULES DOUGLASS and Sank Flowers, river men, who were to start to Central America, have abandoned the idea of emigrating to such a hot climate, but instead have started for Red river, as pilots of the Iron City, from St. Louis.

THE Louisville and Cincinnati Mail Line Company have chartered the Argonaut. She came up from Portland yesterday, loaded and left for Cincinnati. Capt. Gus Everheart is on the roof, and Dan. Hodges is in the office.—Louisville Democrat.

WE see by the St. Louis papers that the Vicksburg and St. Louis packet line has been reorganized, one boat leaving St. Louis every Wednesday and Saturday. The boats are four in number, all side-wheel and well officered. The line is composed of the Rubicon, H. M. Shreve, Columbian and Peoria City.

ST. LOUIS.—The wrecking boat Underwriter is on her way down the Missouri to this point, and reports having removed four hundred snags. There is more than enough work of that sort in the Missouri river for twenty Underwriters. Boats make slow progress above St. Louis, owing to low water. The decline of the rivers goes on steadily.

RIVER IMPROVEMENT.—While the improvements on the Mississippi have been and are progressing steadily at all points, the survey of the Ohio is not yet finished. The dredge-boat for the Ohio is not in course of construction, as the bids to the proposals published have not been accepted by the Government. The lowest bid was $275,000. The Government has ordered proposals advertised again in Western papers for building dredge-boats, and our Western boat builders now have a chance.

THE new towboat Peytona, Captain McCallum, made a trial trip up the river yesterday. There was quite a gay party on board, all of whom enjoyed themselves hugely. The boat ran like lightning and the machinery worked like a charm.—Louisville Democrat.

Of course the machinery worked well. It performed the same way for many years on the Chevoit and J. T. McCombs, and by the way, is about old enough to have a vote.

THE New Albany chaps want to bet from $100 to $1,000 that the Nettie Irwin, of that city, can beat the Charles Kremer, of this city. Both are skiffs. What say our boys?—Louisville Democrat.

Just fix that matter between yourselves—afterwards we can furnish a dozen boats that will beat the winner. Why don't you make it interesting and invite our boys down there for a few thousand aside?

NEW ORLEANS.—The weather yesterday on the levee was the counterpart of the day previous; it was a bright and a fair day, and we hope for a continuance of such weather as we have had for the past few days, and we see its effects in the decreasing reports of mortality as published by our daily papers. With such weather Jack Frost is bound to make his appearance, and that shortly, and if he do s interfere with the late cotton, his effects in other quarters will be beneficial. So let him come.

Business on the levee continues dull, very dull. The General Quitman brought in a fine load of the fleecy staple and the Henry Adkins, from St. Louis, also arrived this morning, and the discharging of the two cargoes looked something like business.

ST. PAUL.—The dullness which has prevailed most of the week was relieved by quite a busy day. The Northern Belle, which had been expected the night previous, did not get in until yesterday. She reached the bar just below the city about half-past two o'clock in the morning, but getting aground, she remained there till near noon.

The Addie Johnston also stuck on the bar about half an hour, and spent some time in trying to get the Belle off. The Cutter, coming up from Stillwater, went alongside and took off her passengers and part of her freight, which she brought to this city.—Press.

LOUISVILLE.—The Democrat, on the Situation—We hope the young man does feel happy after the delivery of the following: "Our Steamboatmen.—It will no doubt be but a short time now before there will be a sufficient rise in the river to permit a full resumption of navigation upon our Western and Southern rivers. As a matter of course, this will create a stir in steamboat circles, and among the steamboatmen in particular. Besides our own regular packets—we mean those that intend running to and from this city to other ports—there will be a number of boats that are owned in other cities, and where most of their interests lie whenever they can serve those cities to advantage. Now we are about to offer a suggestion to our steamboat owners, which we think, if carried out, will prove beneficial to all parties concerned. It is this: Let the owners or captains of boats owned in Louisville employ Louisville men upon their boats. Let Cincinnati, Saint Louis and Pittsburgh do the same thing as they have endeavored to do. Louisville is the home of some of the best steamboatmen alive, and she has furnished more of them than almost any other city. There are a large number of excellent clerks, pilots, engineers, mates, &c., in this city who have been idle for some time, and who should be hired by boats running to and from this port. It will help the boats, the men, the trade and the city, and be the means of doing a great deal of good all around. Look to this steamboatmen, and see that it is done. Don't hire strangers to do business when you can find men well known at home to do it for you. You will find it will pay you to hire Louisville men. The merchants will help you."

By Last Night's Mail

CINCINNATI.—We condense the following from the Commercial of Monday, October 21st:

The weather, yesterday, was clear and mild. At Pittsburgh, the river was falling last night, with 15 inches in the channel. Here it is falling slowly, with 24 inches on the shoalest bars hence to Louisville.

Capt. W. A. Whittaker died at his residence in this city yesterday after a lingering illness. The deceased was born in Virginia, and was identified with boating on the Great Kanawha and Ohio rivers. The last steamer he commanded was the Marmora.

The Florence Traber goes in the Louisville Mail Line to-day.

LOUISVILLE, October 20.—There is two and one-half feet on Portland Bar. The Havana and Robert Moore departed for Cincinnati. The steamer Belle Lee was launched, at Jeffersonville, on Saturday.

EVANSVILLE, IND., October 20.—Weather unchanged. Mercury 78 in the shade at 3 P. M. The river has fallen one and a half inches in the last twenty-four hours. The Alpha, Louisville to Cairo, and Chattanooga, from Cairo, were the only arrivals. The Mayflower has gone to the bank at Cairo. Business at Memphis is also suspended.

CAIRO, October 20.—No Ohio boats here since last report. River stationary. Weather clear. Mercury 75 degrees. Cotton is coming up freely from Memphis. The Ned Tracy had 660 bales cotton to-day for the East via St. Louis.

MEMPHIS, October 20.—Weather clear and warm. Business very dull. At Vicksburg the Dan. Able is laid up on account of the low water. There is only four feet and two inches on Phillips's bar. Passed down—Forsythe, City of Cairo, and Right Way. Passed up—City of Cairo.

LOUISVILLE STEAMER SUNK.—The steamer Ollie Sullivan sunk, on Friday night, near Newburg, Ind. Particulars not stated.

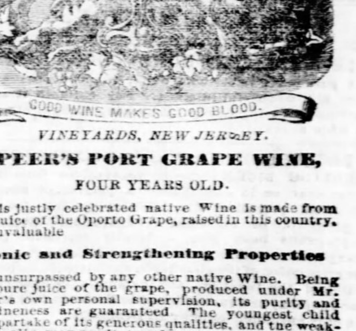
SPEER'S PORT GRAPE WINE,

Used by hundreds of Congregations for Church or Communion Purposes.

ALSO,

EXCELLENT FOR LADIES AND WEAKLY PERSONS.



VINEYARDS, NEW JERSEY.

SPEER'S PORT GRAPE WINE,

FOUR YEARS OLD.

This justly celebrated native Wine is made from the juice of the Oporto Grape, raised in this country, its invaluable

Tonic and Strengthening Properties

Are unsurpassed by any other native Wine. Being the pure juice of the grape, produced under Mr. Speer's own personal supervision, its purity and genuineness are guaranteed. The youngest child may partake of its generous qualities, and the weakest invalid may use it to advantage. It is particularly beneficial to the aged and debilitated, and suited to the various ailments that afflict the weaker sex. It is, in every respect,

A WINE TO BE RELIED ON.

Invalids use SPEER'S PORT GRAPE WINE.
Females use SPEER'S PORT GRAPE WINE.
Weakly persons find a benefit by its use.
SPEER'S WINES in hospitals are preferred to other wines.
☞ Sold by Druggists and Grocers.
